No Word From Amundsen Plane On Perilous Arctic Flight $125,000 Taken By Armed Bandit Gang In Robbery Of Mail Car At Toronto

Machine Carrying Capt. Roald Amundsen and Two Pilots From Norway to Search for Men of Dirigible Italia in Spitzbergen Region Unreported Since Monday Night

Copenhagen, June 20.—Danish aviation circles were beginning to grow uneasy to-day regarding the fate of Capt. Roald Amundsen, famous explorer, who left Tromsø, Norway, Monday night for Spitzbergen and has since dropped out of sight.

The concern is the more acute because this month is the worst possible for Arctic exploration and no expert would ever think of going out now except in the greatest emergency.

Some, however, are still confident regarding Amundsen's safety as it has been his rule never to let people hear from him before he has accomplished what ever he might have set out to do.

TWO PILOTS IN PLANE

Capt. Amundsen left Tromsø on Monday night in a French seaplane. He was accompanied by Lieut. Lief Dietrichsen and René Guilband. They were due at King's Bay, Spitzbergen, long before this. There have been several rumors concerning them, but they lack confirmation.

While he was preparing for the flight it was stated Capt. Amundsen and his pilots would not search for Gen. Umberto Nobile and his five companions on the ice near Northeast Land, but would leave that to others while they searched for the seven men who were carried away with the bag of the Polar dirigible Italia after the gondola had been torn off on the ice.

MONTREAL THUG SHOT AND TAKEN

Man Who Robbed Theatre Wounded By Constable; Lies Near Death

Montreal, June 20.—James McKenzie, who was shot in the abdomen by Constable Edgcombe here last night after he had held up the manager and cashier of the Strand Theatre and taken $400, was still alive to-day, but his condition was critical.

McKenzie, who gave his age as twenty-seven and said he had come here from Boston, Mass., did not get far with his plunder. Immediately after the holdup, which was carried out on the second floor of the theatre, the manager dashed to a balcony and shouted to the crowd on St. Catherine Street to stop the man. He was tripped, but got up and dashed into Mansfield Street. He was chased by Constable Edgcombe, who fired when the man turned and threatened him with his revolver.

The policeman's shot struck McKenzie in the left side of the lower abdomen and he crumpled to the sidewalk.

U.S.-DANISH TREATY SIGNED

Copenhagen, June 20.—A treaty of arbitration between Denmark and the United States was signed to-day. The treaty is on the same lines as the one drawn between the United States and France.

CANADIAN CITIZENSHIP WEEK WILL BE JULY 1 TO 7

Seattle, June 20.—Kiwanis clubs in Canada will emphasize throughout the entire Dominion, during Canadian Citizenship Week, July 1-7, the immediate need of a strong Federal and Provincial immigration policy, so that settlers may be more quickly placed on unoccupied lands, according to John McMillan, of Montreal, chairman of the committee on Public Affairs for Canada, who to-day addressed the delegates attending the twelfth annual convention of Kiwanis International here.

"In addition to this we should give more thought to making provision for Canadians who are now living in cities and who might be interested in taking up land settlements and agriculture," Mr. McMillan said. "Assistance and protection should be given these people while they make the change from the city to the farm."

Every one of the Canadian Kiwanis clubs will also secure members of the Provincial Legislatures, or members of

LIBERALS TO BACK STRONG TICKET HERE

Prospective Candidates Impress Meeting With Businesslike Addresses

Government Success Assured, Speakers Declare; Tolmie Endorses Policies

That Victoria Liberals will place in the provincial election field the strongest ticket which has represented them in many years was indicated last night when prospective candidates addressed a meeting of the Ward Four Liberal Association in the Liberal Headquarters.

W. T. Straith, Alderman, Robert Dewar, Alderman, H. O. Litchfield, Mark Graham and Dr. Lewis Hall, who will seek nomination at the Liberal convention in the Royal Victoria Theatre, Friday night, all impressed the audience with their businesslike addresses on provincial affairs. The speakers joined in expressing confidence of Liberal victory here and in the Province generally on July 18, and declared that even Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative Party leader, had virtually endorsed the MacLean Government's work and policies in his election manifesto.

PRAISES-ROAD WORK

W. T. Straith was the first speaker. Development of the West Coast Road, which was officially opened yesterday, shows the present Government has placed a great deal of confidence in the development of this portion of the Province, the speaker said.

The big hope of Victoria for expansion and development lies in the West Coast, Mr. Straith stated. All the Conservative propaganda about the road never going to start has been waived away with an actual start on this project, he declared.

BACKS GOVERNMENT

Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative leader, in delivering his manifesto, actually recorded a splendid vote of confidence in the present Liberal Government, the speaker told his audience. The Conservative chief had announced nothing new but had just outlined the work and plans of the present Government. People of the Province had expected some revelation of policy, but they had been sorely disappointed, Mr. Straith concluded.

NEW MAN HEADS TICKET HERE FOR CONSERVATIVES

J. H. Beatty, Never at Political Meeting Before, Chosen By Convention

J. H. Beatty, Joshua Hinchliffe, Reginald Hayward, M. Despard Triggs.

These are the Conservative candidates to contest the coming provincial elections in Victoria.

They were chosen on one ballot last night at a party nominating convention in the Chamber of Commerce, attended by 300 delegates, seated according to wards. A number of alternatives in the back of the hall were present, but they did not participate in the voting.

Mr. Beatty is the new man on the ticket, replacing Major Lyons. The other three are retiring members of the last Legislature.

Scrutineers examined each person's credential card as he or she reached the door of the meeting.

Five men were nominated. E. W. Maynard, who appealed for labor support, was the unsuccessful nominee in the voting.

TIED FOR FIRST

The votes cast for each candidate were not announced. The chairman, however, said that Mr. Beatty and Mr. Hinchliffe tied for first place.

R. A. Wooten as temporary chairman opened the meeting. He called for nominations for permanent chairman. Gordon Cameron nominated W. C. Morenby and he was declared elected by acclamation.

CEREMONY AT BRIDGE MARKS START OF ROAD

Hon. W. H. Sutherland Officially Opens Jordan River Bridge on West Coast

Large Party From City Attend to See Significant Event in Island History

The Jordan River bridge, which marks the start of the new West Coast Road, was officially opened yesterday by Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works, at a ceremony sponsored by the Victoria Chamber of Commerce in association with the Automobile Club.

A forerunner of settlement and industrial expansion and a link for Victoria with vast resources on the West Coast of the Island, the new road will prove one of the Island's most valuable assets, speakers at the ceremony predicted. The fertility of the area which will be opened up by the highway, its tourist value and the tremendous effect it will have on general conditions were stressed.

NEVERS RIBBON

The opening ceremony was brief but impressive. Following expressions of appreciation at the commencement of the road by P. B. Fowler, president of the Chamber of Commerce, W. J. Clubb, of the Automobile Club and H. H. Fowler, Dr. Sutherland gave an outline of Government's interest in the work and proceeded to sever a red, white and blue ribbon which had been stretched across the site of the bridge.

SEVEN MEN ARE ORDERED TO PAY $1,723,279

Chicago, June 20.—Mayor William Hale Thompson, Michael Flaherty, Joseph P. Moran and Percival B. Condon, public administrator, and three real estate experts were found in circuit court here to-day to have conspired together in hiring the real estate men to do special work under the last Thompson administration at a cost to the city of $1,723,279.

Judge Hugo Friend ordered the defendants to make restitution of the sum to the city treasury.

ELECTION TO BE POLICE TEST

Mayor Taylor Tells Vancouver Commissioner People Will Decide

Vancouver, June 20.—Detective Sergeant George McLaughlin was "only repeating gossip" when he testified in court yesterday that he was in charge of gambling and was letting it run, Mayor L. B. Taylor declared in his evidence at this morning's session of the Vancouver police inquiry.

"My policy in regard to Chinatown gambling was evidently construed to cover other parts of the city," the witness declared.

The mayor denied Chief of Police H. W. Long's statement that he, the mayor, had said a Chinaman wanted to open a gambling place at 54 Cordova Street. He explained he was merely passing on a rumor, just as he handed on other rumors, and the chief remarked that the place would be "pulled."

In reply to G. G. McGeer, K.C., counsel for Police Commissioner T. W. Fletcher, Mayor Taylor stated he knew nothing of the charge made by McLaughlin that he could not get authority from the chief of police or Inspector John Jackson to close gambling places.

NO COMPLAINT

McLaughlin never complained to me," the mayor declared.

When Mr. McGeer drew attention to the evidence of Chief Long that he was acting under instructions from the mayor, the witness denied the charge, saying he had received any definite instructions.

Mr. McGeer then remarked that the officials named had laid the blame on the mayor.

"I suppose they wanted to lay it on some one," replied the witness.

ELECTION TEST

The chief laid the blame for these gambling places running on your policy. He laid the blame flatly on your interference," said Mr. McGeer.

"I am carrying on," replied the mayor, "according to my election policy and if the people do not approve of it they will know how to treat me at the next election."

SLAYER GETS NEW TRIAL

Appeal Court Rules Inadmissible Pictures Prejudicial Jury

Leung Chong, convicted slayer of Constable Ernest Sargent of the Vancouver police, this morning was given a reprieve from hanging on Friday next, when the British Columbia Court of Appeal unanimously granted a new trial after acquiescing that the trial judge, Mr. Justice Morrison, had permitted inadmissible character evidence to be placed before the jury.

Stuart Henderson, after a brief argument before the British Columbia Court of Appeal that admission of improper evidence had caused conviction of Leung Chong by a Vancouver jury on April 18 last, under Mr. Justice Aulay Morrison, at the Spring Assizes.

Constable Sargent was fatally wounded in the early hours of November 5 last, his assailant disappearing until dramatically arrested in a Victoria theatre by Chief of Police John Fry.

DEATH BED STATEMENT

An ante-mortem statement by the dying officer had identified Leung Chong from a group of police photographs. At the trial these photographs had been placed before the jury, with explanations by witnesses that the number system used on his picture implied a dangerous man and a penitentiary record.

AGED MOTHER Seeks News Of Her Son

Mrs. John Symington, of Lake Geneva, Alberta, has communicated with the Victoria police in an effort to find her thirty-five-year-old son, Milton. He was known to have come to Victoria from Vancouver two years ago when he wrote a letter to his aged mother. Since that time no word has been received from him. He is generally employed as a teamster. Any person knowing the location of this man is asked to communicate with the Victoria police.

LIBERAL MEETING IN SAANICH TO-NIGHT

Interest is keen in Saanich in the meeting scheduled to-night for Hampton Hall. Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works, and Norman Whitaker, Liberal candidate, will be the speakers. Mr. Whitaker's active campaign has won him a host of friends and his clear-cut speeches have created a favorable impression.

Clerks in Train in Big Union Station in Ontario Capital Surprised by Six Robbers, Who Escape in Fast Automobile; Police Scour Ontario and Border Districts of United States; No Arrests Yet

Toronto, June 20.—Six armed bandits robbed a mail car at the Union Station here early this morning. After a check-up of the amounts in the registered mail bags taken had been made, Inspector of Detectives, Guthrie announced this afternoon that the loss had been set at approximately $125,000.

The police of Ontario and Quebec and bordering parts of the United States have been strongly reinforced in the hunt for the bandits.

NO TRACE FOUND

Toronto, June 20.—Although police and detectives scoured this city and surrounding districts with systematic vigilance, no trace was discovered to-day of the six armed bandits who shortly after midnight carried out with precision and speed one of the big hold-ups ever staged in the history of Toronto. The bandits held up the clerks of a Canadian National Railway mail car at the Union Station and seized three bags containing registered mail routed for Detroit and Chicago, the value of which has been set at approximately $125,000.

Police emergency automobiles have been to the scene of the hold-up, but the robbers, who had apparently planned the crime well, had made their escape before they arrived.

ALL DETECTIVES AT WORK

As soon as the robbery was reported to him Chief of Police Draper took charge of the hunt for the bandits and the entire detective force was called out. All nearby points outside of Toronto were notified to call out a watch for the large sedan used by the bandits, which was equipped with license plates issued in 1924, which had been changed and made to appear like this year's markers.

The authorities were hampered in their efforts to ascertain the exact amount the bags contained. Nothing definite could be stated as to the amount the robbers secured until completion of a check-up started at once by the banks.

DROVE ALONG LAKE

The bandits were last seen heading in a westerly direction along the Lake Ontario shore road. Police in border towns and cities throughout Western Ontario are immediately called out, while Toronto police patrolled the Hamilton and Dundas highways in high-powered cars. During the early hours of this morning Toronto citizens were startled by the shrill sirens of the police cars as they darted here and there investigating clues. Several promising reports of the sighting of the bandits were received from the western and northern ends of the city, but these proved to be unfounded.

CRIME CAREFULLY PLANNED

That the bandits had carefully planned the robbery was shown by the manner in which they conducted it. They drove through the Union Station, past standing mail trucks and directly alongside the mail car, shortly before seven took police cars to catch them. The machine then was driven rapidly to the open door of the mail car, which was in charge of John M. Farrow of London, Ont.

The bandits instantly covered the clerks with revolvers and jumped into the car. The valuable registered mail was in three smaller receptacles.

These clerks tried to keep hidden, but the robbers demanded them at the point of their guns.

ALL CANDIDATES TO BE IN FIELD BEFORE WEEK-END

Liberal Convention Here Last Preliminary to Provincial Poll

Nomination of Liberal candidates in Victoria, at a convention here Friday night, remains the only important preliminary to the election in British Columbia.

With Conservative nominations completed here and in Vancouver last night, and with Yale Liberals nominating to-night, the week-end will see probably all candidates in the field. Formal nomination will follow on June 27, just three weeks before the poll of July 18.

Last night's nominations, which selected Reginald Hayward, Joshua Hinchliffe, H. D. Triggs and J. H. Beatty as the Conservative slate here, returned almost a solid ticket of Conservative veterans in Vancouver. With the exception of W. C. Shelly, who is a new entry into active politics, the ticket is composed of old-timers in the party organization, as follows: R. L. Mathison, George A. Walker, Colonel Nelson Spencer, Thomas H. Kirk and William Dick.

PREMIER ON WAY

Premier MacLean reached Spence's Bridge to-day after his northern tour to attend the Yale nominating convention to-night. The Premier is vacating his former home to-day to return to Victoria, and in his place several prominent men are mentioned. Yale is represented as a safe Liberal seat.

After attending the Liberal convention in Vancouver Thursday night the Premier will come here Friday for the Victoria convention, with Attorney-General Manson.

Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative leader, accompanied by Joshua Hinchliffe of Victoria, will start on a tour of (Concluded on page 2)

$100,000 BAIL GIVEN FOR MAN

One of Two Winnipeegers Charged With Conspiracy to Defraud Released

Winnipeg, June 20.—E. L. Taylor, K.C., former president of the Canadian National Fire Insurance Company, and W. T. Alexander, former director, were arraigned in the provincial police court here this afternoon, charged with conspiracy to defraud, and were remanded for one week without pleading.

Taylor secured his release on bail of $100,000 last night, but Alexander, for whom a similar amount was set, still is in custody. Counsel for Alexander applied for a reduction in the amount of bail, but this was refused.

A warrant also has been issued for F. H. Alexander, another director of the company, but he is out of the city.

LENGTHY INVESTIGATION

The information, lodged after a long investigation by officials of the Manitoba Attorney-General's Department into the affairs of the company, was sworn out by Inspector William Smith of the provincial force. It sets out that W. T. Alexander, E. L. Taylor and F. H. Alexander, between December 1, 1926, and December 1, 1927, unlawfully conspired together, by deceit or falsehood or other fraudulent means to defraud the Canadian National Fire Insurance Company of money or the use or benefit of money of the said company.

The arrests were the result of charges made in a civil suit brought by Louis Hayland Leavine, a shareholder, against the Great West Life Company, the Imperial Canadian Trust Company and the directors of the fire insurance company.

ISLAND EGG MEN JOIN POOL SCHEME

Vote to Send Delegates to Provincial Conference on New Market Plan

Poultrymen of southern Vancouver Island will co-operate with egg men from all parts of British Columbia in framing plans for a Province-wide egg pool to handle this Province's egg output. Decision to send delegates to a provincial meeting of poultrymen was reached by producers of the area south of Duncan at a meeting here this week. The delegates who will represent this district will report at a later meeting, and if the pool arrangements are satisfactory, the producers will commence to sign contracts with the new organization.

The biggest question to be settled, so far as the producers here are concerned, is their right to sell eggs direct to the Victoria market without reference to the pool. This right will be preserved for the producers in their contracts, it is expected. The Manitoba egg pool, on which the B.C. organization will be roughly patterned, makes special provision for this direct sale of eggs to large city markets.

In the latter part of his life Dr. Hamman was the author of various books on German politics and the German Empire.

NEW SPIRIT IN PACIFIC REGION

Winnipeg Speaker Addresses
Kiwanis International on Nations' Position

Seattle, June 20.—Two commonwealths of the British Empire, Australia and New Zealand, to-day face the serious problem of holding their large areas of thinly inhabited yet fertile land for white settlement alone, under the very eyes of teeming millions of Asia, most of whom are struggling on the verge of subsistence. Dr. John MacKay of Winnipeg, world traveler and president of Manitoba College, explained to 6,000 Kiwanians attending the annual convention of Kiwanis International here to-day.

"Both countries are facing the problem bravely," he said, "but one can hardly fail to wonder whether or not the pressure of want in Asia may not become so great as to make it impossible to hold these lands for purely white settlement alone. Whatever the solution, the immediate future offers dangerous possibilities."

BRIDGE NEEDED

Dr. MacKay, as a member to the Conference of the Institute on Pacific Relations, emphasized, to avoid distrust, the need of building a bridge of understanding, mutual respect and sympathy across the Pacific. In this way, he suggested, what was best in each of the nations that could pass directly into the life of all others.

"In our arrogance as a white race," Dr. MacKay said, "we have looked upon everyone whose skin is a different color from our own as inferior. We must learn quickly to be acquainted enough to see and respect the essential dignity and sanctity of every human being. We must not judge by the color of a man's skin, but the quality of humanity it covers. We must cease to act as if we had everything to teach and nothing to learn from the yellow races."

The great difficulty, he said, was that of conflicting interests.

"At present the greatest prize in the world of commerce and industry is the Chinese market," he said. "To all the nations, that market is important; to Japan it is vital."

"Suspicion and jealousy and fear and the lust to kill must be driven out if we are to clasp hands across the broad Pacific in a brotherhood of service for the world that is to be. The second challenge of the Pacific world is the challenge to our own self-complacency. We have been so completely obsessed by the conviction of our own white supremacy, with the conviction that we are the only part of the human family that matters, that it comes as a shock to our vanity to see two-thirds of humanity rising up, strong, virile, and thoroughly awake and pressing for its share of the good things of earth and determined to have them, even if its skin does happen to be a different color from ours."

"To Canada and the United States has been given the supreme task of showing what our humanity can do in a new and vastly rich environment, freed from the dread of war and the fears of an outworn civilization."

LIGHTNING KILLS FOUR

Bloomington, Ind., June 20.—Four men were killed by lightning near here yesterday while they were standing under a tree on the grounds of the University of Indiana. A fifth man was shocked badly.

One of the world's first hospitals was founded by Princess Macha, in Ireland, about 300 B.C.

B.C. LOOKS FOR BIG APPLE CROP

Ottawa, June 20.—Canadian fruit crop prospects are more promising than in the fruit producing provinces from the Atlantic to the Pacific. This forecast is based, entirely on blossom conditions on June 1.

Without exception all kinds of fruit showed a heavy blossom, according to a crop report issued to-day by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. As the amount of bloom is little or no indication of the eventual yield, except that a big crop could not be expected from a small showing of blossom, no attempt will be made to estimate the yields until the results of the June weather are known.

OUTLOOK IN B.C.
British Columbia, which is more advanced than any of the other provinces, is very hopeful for good crops of apples, peaches, cherries, plums and small fruits. Strawberries, which are now going to market, are practically assured of an increased crop over 1927.

Apple growers in British Columbia have bright prospects for a crop that will exceed either that of 1926 or 1927. The commercial shipments in those years were 3,935,500 boxes and 3,238,400 boxes, respectively.

EASTERN CANADA
In the eastern provinces, weather conditions were cool and wet during the blossom period and it is feared that in all probability the yield will not be as heavy as might be expected. The strawberry and raspberry crop promise to equal last year's production.

SUES FOR MILLION IN FLIN FLON STOCK

Toronto, June 20.—Ownership of Sherritt-Gordon Mine stock valued at more than $1,000,000 is disputed in a suit in progress here before Mr. Justice Roney in the non-jury session.

John W. Callinan of Toronto, a mining prospector and operator, is suing James C. Grace, mine financier, also of Toronto, and other defendants for a declaration that he, Callinan, owns half of 178,000 shares of Sherritt-Gordon stock which, at current prices, is worth approximately $1,105,000. The stock was bought by Grace for $92,500.

Callinan, who spent much time in the Flin Flon area in Manitoba, where the mine is located, claims it was on his advice that Grace purchased the stock. All but 25,000 shares was put in Grace's name by agreement, but according to Callinan, he and Grace had agreed verbally to split "fifty-fifty" as they had in all previous transactions.

Grace, he states, subsequently refused to split.

The two men are joint owners of the Callinan Flin Flon Mines.

The trial of the suit opened yesterday.

New York-Seattle Air Mail Planned

St. Paul, Minn., June 20.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh came to St. Paul yesterday afternoon to investigate the feasibility of a northern two-day New York-Seattle airplane-rail passenger route.

Unannounced, he landed his monoplane at the St. Paul municipal airport at 4:15 p.m. and made his way to the home of Louis W. Hill, who was soon in conference with Mr. Hill, chairman of the Great Northern Railway, and Ralph Budd, president of the road.

To reporters who saw him at the Hill home he said: "I'm investigating various transcontinental air routes."

Alberta Motorist Killed on Highway

Calgary, June 20.—William Hatfield, thirty, an employee of the Royalite Oil Company, was almost instantly killed, Jack Wilson, an electric welder, employed by the same company, is in a critical condition suffering from head and internal injuries, and George Kelly, electrician, is also in the hospital.

The accident occurred on the highway between Calgary and Banff, where the company is operating a roadhouse and garage. The accident occurred while the three men were working on a car.

Antimony Poisons Factory Workers

Montreal, June 20.—Antimony, accidentally introduced into their lunch-soup in mistake for salt, poisoned twenty-one employees of the Dominion Textile Company at its St. Anne's branch here yesterday. Antidotes were applied promptly in hospitals and many were able to return home and the remainder are progressing favorably.

They were served with vegetable soup and violent vomiting followed immediately. The victims were quickly taken to hospitals.

Laboratory tests developed the presence of antimony in the salt.

SLAYER GETS NEW TRIAL

This course was barred by court procedure. Mr. Henderson argued, because it amounted to bad character evidence, inadmissible until the defence put on record good character testimony.

Replying to Mr. Justice Gauthier, Mr. Henderson submitted that if major testimony was inextricable from bad character evidence, such important facts could not be submitted.

NO WARNING
When the court resumed hearing this morning attention was directed to the evidence of Wing, as ineligible Chief Justice Macdonald remarked this evidence was suspicious, and asked if Leung Chong had been warned prior to placing Wing in company with the accused in prison, that his statements would be used in court. This was denied by Mr. Henderson.

Alexis Martin for the Crown showed that photographs, identified by Constable Sargent in his ante-mortem statement, had not been placed before the jury until statements made by the accused to Wing were on record.

In those statements to his cell companion Wing, the accused was alleged to have admitted serving jail sentences. Presentation of evidence showing a police record had followed and had not wronged the accused, Mr. Martin argued.

Chief Justice Macdonald remarked that the evidence as to character was well calculated to disadvantage the accused Leung Chong. He believed that the ante-mortem statement of Constable Sargent would have been admissible evidence if unaccompanied by the marked photographs and information for the jury as to what the portrait implied.

$125,000 TAKEN BY ARMED BANDITS IN ROBBERY OF MAIL CAR AT TORONTO

As soon as they had secured possession of the registered mail bags, the bandits turned out to the main runway, where two confederates seized them and threw them into the automobile. The other robbers then jumped out of the mail car and rushed to their motor car, which was driven speedily up Station Street to Fleet Street. The bandits quickly outdistanced all pursuers. The mail train was stopped at Sunnyside Beach, in the western end of the city.

It was reported the bandits over-looked another mail bag containing a very large sum of money.

The police were able to secure a description of only two of the robbers who entered the mail car. One is described as twenty-two years old, five feet six inches in height, dark complexion, wearing a blue suit and peaked cap.

MAIL CLERK'S REPORT
Mr. Farrow, mail messenger in charge of the car, was able to give the exact time the robbers appeared. He left the registration office at precisely 12:05 with three bags of registered mail, one of which was a money bag. His total complement consisted of fifty-five bags of letters and six bags of registered mail and the money bag. At the station he loaded this on a truck and with his assistant proceeded fifty yards to the mail train, unarmed. They placed it in the mail car and immediately afterwards the bandits appeared on the scene.

HUNDREDS SEARCH
Toronto, June 20.—To-day hundreds of policemen searched the highways and byways of Ontario and Quebec and bordering parts of the United States for trace of the six armed bandits who robbed the mail car attached to the Canadian National Railway Chicago flyer at Toronto Union Station shortly after last midnight.

The robbery was quickly executed. The few people on the station platform took no notice of the big sedan as it ran along and backed up to the mail car. The three clerks were busy checking the bags, some of which contained large consignments from banks in Western Canada and beyond. There were no arms or ammunition in the car. Four of the gunmen jumped out of the automobile, held up the clerks with waved-off revolvers and revolvers, and selected the bags they wanted, threw them out to their waiting confederates and joined them and drove off.

It was all over in a matter of minutes. The robbers were not seen by persons well acquainted with the postal and train system.

SUMS INSURED
Inquiries reveal that practically all the losses sustained are covered by insurance.

insurance. All registered letters are insured up to the value of $25 by the payment of the registration fee and the banks themselves insure the money which they send out through the mails.

At least $10,000 of a total day's shipment of more than $250,000 belonging to the Canadian Bank of Commerce was known to have been in the bags taken by the robbers, said A. W. C. Campbell, accountant of the bank.

TO BE INDEMNIFIED
Ottawa, June 20.—Postal department officials are to-day without a clue as to the identity of the robbers who held up two railway mail clerks in Toronto and escaped with about 200 pieces of registered mail shortly after last midnight.

The exact number and value of the mail stolen had not been ascertained this afternoon.

With regard to the senders of the registered packages, it was explained by department officials this afternoon that they would be indemnified up to the extent of the amounts covered by the registration fees. This, however, does not apply to banks and similar organizations, which carry insurance on their mailed packages with outside firms.

It is expected the department will be in possession of full details of the mail stolen by to-morrow, when an official statement may be issued.

NOBLE'S MEN GET SUPPLIES

LIST OF PARTY
The party with General Noble was as follows: Lieut. Alfredo Vigliani, navy navigator; Prof. F. Behonnel, Czechoslovakian, scientist; Giuseppe Biaggi, radio operator; Natale Cecconi, motor chief; and Filippo Troiano, engineer.

SURGEON MAKES OFFER
Turin, Italy, June 20.—Professor Dogliotti, surgeon of the faculty of Turin University, has forwarded a request to the Under-Secretary of Agriculture, asking that he be allowed to go to King's Bay, Spitzbergen, to aid in the Noble rescue work being attempted from there.

It is the surgeon's scheme to have himself dropped by plane to the ice floe on which are General Noble and his five companions and to operate on the spot on those of the party requiring the services of a surgeon.

RADIO USED
Rome, June 20.—General Noble himself by means of radio, guided Major Maddalena, Italian flier, to his camp off Northeast Land, says an official communique issued by the Italian Italian News Agency, late to-day.

When the major found yesterday he could not see the Noble party from his plane, he arranged the Noble party should send out radio signals, which he picked up, finding the stranded group.

About 650 pounds of provisions, clothes and medical supplies requested by Gen. Noble were dropped from the Italian plane.

SHOULD HAVE TOLD
Mr. McGee stated McLaughlin had sworn there was a type of criminal which patronized the gambling places, and that the crime wave was due in part, at least, to the open conditions of the city.

"In view of McLaughlin's description of these gambling halls, what reason can you give for them not being closed?" asked Mr. McGee.

"I'm not going to give a reason. If he knew about it he should have come to the commissioners," said the Mayor.

"Well, knowing and doing nothing because he could get no co-operation from his inspector or his chief, has he any right to remain on his job?"

"No," replied the Mayor.

"Is the head of the force entitled to hold his job under the same circumstances?"

"Oh, I don't want to answer that."

"Of course you don't, but I am asking you as a citizen."

"If it actually occurred, I would say no."

INSPECTOR ILL
The next man is Jackson. Is he fit to continue as inspector under the same circumstances?" asked, counsel.

"No, but in Jackson's case some allowance has to be made because of his illness," said the Mayor.

"Was he too sick to tell McLaughlin to go and do the place?"

"No."

"And if the chief refused to give his co-operation, is he fit to be chief?"

"No," replied the Mayor.

Mr. McGee replied that he could hardly ask him that. Commissioner Lennie was the Mayor's superior officer at the moment, and at the proper time he intended to ask the commissioner if the Mayor was a fit man to be in office."

YESTERDAY'S EVIDENCE
At yesterday afternoon's session of the inquiry Mayor Taylor said reorganization of the Vancouver city police force was shown to be necessary by facts and conditions revealed in evidence during the inquiry.

The mayor's statement was made in the course of cross-examination by G. G. McGee, K.C., counsel for Commissioner T. W. Fletcher.

"Tell me why, in the light of all you knew on February 2, you did not want a royal commission to inquire into the police situation," said Mr. McGee.

"Because two or three men defaulted in their work is no reason for a royal commission," replied the mayor.

"Do you believe the present inquiry is justified by the facts that have been revealed?"

"Up to date, yes."

"And is there justification for reorganization of the force?"

"Yes."

It was recommended that Ricci and Sinclair be moved out of Chinatown. Was that proper?" asked counsel.

"I believe the Royal Mounted Police have a charge against Ricci," replied the mayor. "They wrote a confidential letter to the chief saying they would not work with Ricci longer."

"Yes," said the Mayor.

The mayor denied he had even complained to the chief about the situation.

MAYOR PENDRAY ROSS BAY SITE MAKES REPORT DRAWS PROTEST

Canadian National Railways
Are Supporting Cold
Storage Plan

City Council Disposes of Routine Agenda in Brief
Session

Mayor J. C. Pendray was welcomed back to the chair by the City Council last night, and made a verbal report on his negotiations in the East. Mayor Pendray stated that the cold storage plans were now maturing, with evidence of ample financial backing, and the assurance of every co-operation from the Canadian National Railway.

The city's application for a lease was awaiting a decision by the Federal cabinet, and if the lease was secured, the work of installing the plant would proceed at once. Mayor Pendray recited the gist of the published statement he made earlier in the day on his arrival from Vancouver, and will file a written copy of his report for the record of the minutes.

HUS STANDS
Asked by the City Police Commission to terminate the use of street stands by bus lines, the council deferred action until it receives a report of how many operators will be affected. Alderman E. S. Woodward asked the council to set October 1 as the limit of street stands by the busses, but secured no second for his motion. The police board have asked for a revocation of all standing privileges at December 31, 1928. Council action will not come until a report has disclosed how many will be affected. It was intimated.

The land committee reported a sale of a lot on East Cook Street to a local buyer for $1,200 cash, and secured ratification of the resurvey plan of the high ground bounded by May Street, Moss Street and Fairfield Road to avoid excessive road construction.

The council awarded a tender for the supply of 15,000 ledger sheets to The Colonial Printing and Publishing Company for $324.45. The tender was the lowest. It was reported, a Vancouver firm having entered a bid some $40 below that figure.

FOR DOMINION DAY
The council set aside $1,000 for the use of the July 1 celebration committee, $657 of the sum being left over as a balance from last year when the Diamond Jubilee celebration rolled up a cash surplus now split between the May 24 and Dominion Day festivals in this year.

To the Fairbanks-Morse Company was awarded a tender for the supply of a sewage pump, at a cost of $627.25. The council ratified another award, that of the supply of 100 tons of asphalt by the Imperial Oil Company limited, at $21.50 a ton plus sales tax.

On the recommendation of the works committee it was agreed to install a new valve in the water tower at a cost of $334, the sum being provided for in the estimates.

After some discussion the council voted an additional sum of $2,000 for the electric lighting department, to purchase second hand transformers and are lamps from Cleveland, Ohio. The gear would save $4,450 in new gear.

Tenders for fire hose and firemen's uniforms were received by the council and referred to committee and the purchasing agent for tabulation and report.

PETITIONS
Two petitions were received by the council, one against the use of property at Bay and Blenheim Streets as a dumping ground, and other a complaint of the use of property at Government and Simcoe Streets as a garage. Both were referred to committee for report.

At 9:35 p.m. the council adjourned. During July and August, it was decided the city council will meet twice a month, instead of weekly.

EARTH TREMOR FELT
A slight earth tremor was felt throughout the city this morning at 7:37. It was of short duration lasting one or two seconds. A report from the "Division of the Meteorological Observatory" stated that the tremor was very slight, but recorded on all instruments. It appeared to be local, probably originating off the shore line in the Straits of Juan de Fuca.

Crematorium Wanted at Royal Oak, States Alderman William Marchant

Gathering protest against the use of Ross Bay Cemetery for the erection of a crematorium to serve Greater Victoria, was made evident last night when the City Council broached that subject.

In addition to the protest of the Right Rev. Thomas O'Donnell, already published, the council also received protests from P. H. Ross, grandson of the first factor of the Hudson's Bay Company here and a resident in the district since 1872, and from W. White and A. P. Locke, on behalf of property owners in Ross Bay district, who asked time to present a formal petition.

The council referred all protests to the cemetery committee and the city solicitor, while it received and filed a letter from Alderman E. S. Woodward, by way of a reply to a protest. No action was taken by the council on the request of Mr. Woodward for a council resolution favoring Ross Bay as a site for the crematorium, other than tabling the request for a further week.

Alderman William Marchant advised the council that when the Royal Oak Burial Park was under construction, plans had been prepared for the erection there of a crematorium. The Royal Burial Park committee was still open to the use of that site for the purpose, he said, suggesting the new burial ground as a more fitting place for the institution now proposed.

R. P. BUTCHART CITED FOR HIS PUBLIC SERVICE

Freedom of City to Be Presented at Assembly on Friday

Formal notice of motion of the conferring of the Freedom of the City on Robert Pim Butchart at a ceremony to be held at 11 a.m. Friday in the City Council Chamber was raised by the City Council last night by a unanimous and hearty vote.

The citation was as follows: "In pursuance of the powers vested in the City Council by statute, the Freedom of the City of Victoria, the capital of the Province of British Columbia, be and hereby is conferred on Robert Pim Butchart, Esquire, in recognition and appreciation of the eminent public services by Mr. Butchart to the City of Victoria and the surrounding district."

The motion was introduced by Alderman E. S. Woodward, and seconded by Alderman John Harvey.

By invitation received last night the Mayor and aldermen were invited to attend a luncheon at the Union Club after the ceremony, at which Mr. Butchart will be the host.

The ceremony in the City Council Chamber on Friday will be a colorful one, with provincial, civic and district attendance, as well as representation from the naval and military forces, service clubs and other prominent public bodies.

Mr. Butchart will become the second Freeman of the City of Victoria, and incidentally the first commoner to receive the honor in any borough outside the United Kingdom, where the practice originated. Esquimaux, Saanich and Oak Bay Councils are participating fully in the event with the city.

Keating

Keating, June 20.—The Young People's Club of the South Saanich United Church held the regular meeting at Island View Beach Tuesday evening, June 19. The social conveners, Mrs. Bates and Miss Blanch Sherring arranged a coffee party.

The Farmers' Institute will hold the June meeting in the Temperance Hall on Thursday evening. The prizes will be presented to the winners of the strawberry and loganberry competitions and an address will be given, the subject being "Noxious Weeds."

The Women's Institute will meet in the Temperance Hall on Thursday evening.

The Junior Institute Club of the South Saanich Women's Institute held the June meeting at the home of Miss O'Connell, Keating Cross Road. The president, Miss Nellie Styan, was in the chair. Summer activities and entertainments were discussed, the annual club picnic to be held at Rod Hill. It was decided to enter the Women's Institute and mothers of the girls at Mount Douglas Park. The dates for these events will be set at the July meeting. Tea was served by the hostesses at the close of the meeting. The members were invited to hold the July meeting at the home of Mrs. T. Mitchell, Island View Beach Road.

YOUR BABY and MINE

for MOTHERS BY DR. RUSSELL

Mrs. Russell will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

KEENLY HEALTHY CHILD DOES NOT WALK AT USUAL AGE

Mrs. M. K. Russell writes: "I am puzzled about Betty and wonder if you can help me? She is fifteen months old, weighs twenty-two and one-half pounds, eats three or four meals a day, takes a three-hour nap, and sleeps soundly from six until six. She makes little or no effort to walk, though she can support herself and stands up in her play pen. She does not creep. When told to walk she ticks her feet and seems to understand what is expected of her."

"Betty is able to mimic and repeat most words. She can recognize and call by name such objects as clock, calling it, 'tick-tock,' orange, apple, block, chair, door, bread, cracker, and a lot of other words she seems unusual for her age. She carries a tune and plays and sings her doll singing 'Ah-baby!' Her words are clearly spoken and she says, 'I see you,' 'Hello Papa!' She is a happy, smiling baby and her recent medical report was an excellent one."

"I am a strong advocate of books on children, since I have pledged myself to make this motherhood a profession. May I recommend Dr. Watson's 'Psychological Care of Infant and Child,' and Dr. Russell's 'Education and the Good Life' to your readers? My sincerest good wishes to the mothers whose answers problems and others, and for your sane replies that make your column a creditable one."

MOTHERS' PENSION AIDS THOUSANDS SPEAKER SHOWS

Over Thousand Women and 3,457 Children Beneficiaries, Says Mrs. M. E. Smith

Straight From Shoulder Thrusts Feature Esquimalt Candidate's Talk

Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith, Liberal candidate for the Esquimalt constituency, fired the first gun of her campaign at a meeting described as one of the best political gatherings ever held at Jordan River.

She was in one of her best oratorical moods, and her straight from the shoulder thrusts, as she dealt with her political opponents, particularly R. H. Pooley and Joshua Hinchliffe, aroused the cheers of the audience.

BREAK FEUDAL YOKE

Some of the Conservatives in the riding, she began, seemed to think that the feudal system, with the right of succession, still obtained, and that the Pooley seat, but they were going to get the surprise of their lives on July 18.—Dealing with the social, domestic and economic legislation of the Government, Mrs. Smith quoted Tom Moore, president of the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress, who said that "during the last ten years British Columbia had not only led Canada, but the whole world," in that respect.

"Mr. Hinchliffe," continued Mrs. Smith, "is not a good shooter, even if he is a canon. He never hits the bull's eye, and he would remove the social legislation of the Government from the statute books if he dared. On one occasion, after a delegation had asked the Government to increase the disability payment under the Workmen's Compensation Act, Mr. Hinchliffe remarked, 'Instead of paying what is being paid now, I would reduce it fifty per cent.' That is the attitude of the man who is going round the Province criticizing the beneficent legislation of the Government."

"Look at his attitude with regard to mothers' pensions. Let me tell him that with all his criticisms, he is going to have a lively time keeping up to yours truly. He says I am encouraging wrong-doing on the part of the young women of this Province, but he doesn't get the right angle. His brain is twisted. His favorite pastime is in drawing red herrings across the trail."

The mothers' pension bill, said Mrs. Smith, was the biggest, broadest, sanest and most humane bill ever devised. In Alberta, with 150,000 more population, the pension was being paid to only 571 widows, but in British Columbia there were 1,375 widows on the list, and 3,457 children were beneficiaries. The amount paid under the act had increased from $2,000 in 1918 to $100,000 in 1927. It was making homes brighter, and young lives happier, and supplying the silver lining to many a dark cloud.

Mrs. Smith instanced other beneficent legislation along similar lines—the Equal Guardianship Act, whereby a mother has equal privileges and responsibilities; the Minimum Wage Bill for girls and women, which affected 15,000 who formerly received starvation wages; the Deserted Wives' Maintenance Act, under which a man, if living within the Province, could be brought back and made to assume his responsibilities; the Testators' Family Maintenance Act, for giving justice to the family of a man who dies without making a will; the Adoption of Children Act, etc.

This is the kind of legislation the Liberal Government is putting on the statute books," said Mrs. Smith, "and as long as I have a seat in the Legislature, there'll be the prettiest kind of a row if anybody makes any attempt to touch it."

Turning to the labor question, Mrs. Smith said the Government had gone from one thing to another, until today labor is in a banner position. "You don't hear these days of many strikes on Vancouver Island, or of the militia being brought in. All they hear are yells from the calamity howlers who only want to get into the driver's seat and hold the lines. There stock-in-trade consists of scandal, gossip, pick-up town pump stuff. But scandal is no argument, and abuse is not reason. People are looking for facts and figures."

JACKSON SPEAKS

M. B. Jackson, Liberal candidate for the Island, said that during the eight years he had been a member of the legislature, and he could honestly say that there never had been among men any legislative body a more capable representative or a more able administrator than Mary Ellen Smith. "We have seen her in action in the caucus, where policies are crystallized," Mr. Jackson said, "and we have heard her express her able opinions time after time, and we have found in her one of the best minds we have ever had in the Province."

Mr. Jackson dealt somewhat exhaustively with the financial affairs of the Province. He declared that the conditions were more prosperous than they had ever been in B.C.'s history, and that the economic condition surpassed that of any other province in the Dominion. Dr. Toimie, in his opening campaign, stated that "you shall put into power a government of efficiency, because through the efficiency of the government there comes satisfactory conditions in all the affairs of the Province." If that were true, and there was no doubt about it, then on Dr. Toimie's own statement the Government, because of its efficient record, should be returned to power.

QUOTES FINANCIAL POST

Mr. Jackson quoted the Financial Post annual survey, which stated that developments in British Columbia in the past five years made it one of the most promising markets in Canada; and, in January of this year, the same journal said that "British Columbia represents Canada with the largest per capita buying power." The opposition, Mr. Jackson went on to say, had tried to make political capital out of the question of the public debt, but the question one should ask with regard to a private individual is not "What does he owe?" but "What is his ability to pay?" and the same question should be asked with regard to the Government. Tested by the rates of interest required for the borrowing of public funds, the credit of the Province for the average year in its history. As a contrast, the speaker would remember that in the closing days of the Bower government, it was in the habit of borrowing and selling it at 800 on the hundred; and when it went out of office, there was only $56,000 in the public treasury, or $200,000 for three days' pay for the Civil Service. Mr. Jackson asked his audience to compare that record with the fact that the present Government had been able to obtain ninety-eight per cent of a half per cent bonds.

SINKING FUNDS

As an instance of the wise and careful financing policy of the Government, Mr. Jackson pointed out that British Columbia to-day had a larger sinking fund than the aggregate sinking funds of all the other provinces of the Dominion.

Mr. Jackson referred to Dr. Toimie's manifesto. "In the entire manifesto," said Mr. Jackson, "there is not a single pronouncement in concrete form as to what Dr. Toimie proposes to do. If there is anything wrong, he should say what is wrong and exactly how he proposes to remedy it."

"Is Dr. Toimie ignorant or unfair?" asked Mr. Jackson, as by a series of graphs he showed the remarkable progress made in agriculture and business industries of the Province under the Liberal administration.

HON. W. H. SUTHERLAND

The Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works, said the main trunk roads of the Province would encircle the globe, and still leave enough for the streets of Victoria. The Liberal Government had spent $92,000 a year less than the Conservative administration on roads, and yet there were 4,000 more miles of roads, and greater wear-and-tear by reason of the increase in the number of autos from 8,000 to 80,000. Mr. Pooley and his colleagues had made a series of pitiful criticisms of the Public Works Department. One of their stock arguments was that the government engineers had made mistakes in estimates of quantities, forgetting that a contractor was paid only for the amount of work done, no matter what the estimate had been. On the Malahat, for instance, $2.00 per yard was paid for rock work, but an examination of the contractor's books showed that he made only five per cent on the money invested.

Owing to the lateness of the hour, Dr. Sutherland's remarks were very brief. "If our opponents," he said in conclusion, "will state the whole facts and all the truth, then I will be content, for I am not afraid to put our record before any group of competent independent engineers, knowing as I do that it will compare favorably with the best work done by private corporations."

"I am always willing," said the candidate, as he hit the table with a terrific bang with his clenched fist, "to trust the people."

"Orra! Orra!" shouted the little man in the audience, and with a yell of approval he opened a grocer's store in our district!

SIX ARE NAMED AS CANDIDATES

Conservatives of Vancouver Choose Men to Stand in Provincial General Election

Vancouver, June 20.—After seven ballots, lasting until midnight, the Vancouver Conservative convention last night lined up the following ticket for the provincial general election: W. C. Shelly, R. L. Maitland, Major Nelson A. Walkem, ex-M.P.P., Colonel George Spencer, Thomas H. Kirk and William Dick.

The first four were elected in the order named on the first ballot. Thomas H. Kirk emerged on the fourth and William Dick on the seventh.

Those who contested the nominations were Lieut.-Colonel W. W. Foster, D.S.O., former M.P.P., Alderman John Bennett, ex-Mayors C. E. Tidball and T. S. Baxter, Colonel Alfred Thompson, former M.P., E. O. Sherwood, Alderman Frank Woodside, A. S. Matthew, C. J. White and Mrs. Irene Moody.

TOLMIE SPEAKS

Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative leader, came in late after speaking at Abbotsford and Burnaby and addressed the meeting, amplifying certain features of his manifesto and promising two Cabinet Ministers to Vancouver if the people would return the Conservatives to power.

Hon. H. H. Stevens, Brig.-General J. A. Clark and Leon J. Ladner, the three Vancouver Federal members, also spoke briefly, and seated on the platform were Senator S. J. Crowe and several candidates in neighboring constituencies, including J. W. Berry, Jack Louet and E. L. Howe.

The chief burden of the speaker's remarks was his idea that it was "time for a change" and their efforts to make capital for their party by building up the Liberal Party with the United States.

LEADER'S VIEWS

Dr. Tolmie thought the fact that Vancouver had not been given Cabinet representation sooner was evidence of weakness on the part of the Government. The aim of his manifesto, he said, had been to make it easy for beginners in British Columbia, either as miners, farmers or investors. He said that if his party was returned he would investigate the Ontario system of mine taxation to see if it was applicable in this Province and if the sale of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway failed to materialize he would make a survey of the road's possibilities to see if it could be developed as a colonization line.

STEVENS SPEAKS

Hon. H. H. Stevens, while conceding the Province was doing fairly well, said it should be the most prosperous place in the west. The reason it was not, he believed, was because the Federal Government was continually facing towards the United States, and the Provincial Government had failed to realize the potentialities of the Province.

R. L. Maitland thought the Government had failed to carry out its pledge in regard to obtaining reduced freight rates except on one commodity, grain.

NEW BUILDING RECORD IN MAY

Record Figure of $70,684,000 Announced by MacLean Building Reports Ltd.

Toronto, June 20.—Construction contracts awarded throughout Canada during May exceed all previous totals for any month in any year, according to MacLean Building Reports Limited. The record figure of $70,684,100, for May exceeds that for the previous month by 25 per cent, and is greater than that for May, 1927, by 31 per cent. The accumulative total for the first five months, $198,331,200, is 41 per cent larger than for the same period of 1927.

For May, according to geographical divisions, the apportionment is as follows: Quebec, $20,473,300, or 29 per cent; Maritime Provinces, $19,577,600, or 27.6 per cent; Ontario, $15,536,100, or 22 per cent; Prairie Provinces, $10,541,000, or 15 per cent; British Columbia, $4,556,200, or 6.4 per cent. By classifications it shows business buildings, $75,511,800, or 38.4 per cent; residential, $53,941,800, or 27.5 per cent; engineering, $35,851,400, or 18.3 per cent; industrial, $31,026,200, or 15.8 per cent. By location the apportionment reads: Quebec, $28,672,800, or 35 per cent; Ontario, $65,818,300, or 35 per cent.

BIRCH MOST IMPORTANT HARDWOOD

Birch is Canada's most important hardwood. Of the seven Canadian species, the yellow birch (Betula lutea) and the paper birch (Betula alba or papyrifera) are the best known. The former is used for flooring, furniture, cabinet-work, and vehicle stock, while the tough, resinous bark of the latter has supplied the aborigines for centuries with the material for covering their famous birch-bark canoes.

"Why do they call dentists' offices dental parlors?"

"Because parlor is just another name for drawing-room."

MARYE AND "MOM" Their Letters

WOMEN, dear:

Well, the storm is over, and all is well on the Potomac. At least temporarily. Alan hasn't bought a revolver, nor have I attempted suicide.

It wasn't your letter, or it wasn't any conciliatory moves on Alan's part that brought about the reconciliation. It was a friend of Shirley's. I had lunch with her the day after Alan and I had our little run-to-a woman, and she was giving each other silent treatment.

Janet, that is her name, is a stenographer. And I hope to tell you she is something to feast the eyes on—cute, slim, snappy, with a face so young you can't believe it ever could sag or droop. Just how any man could have her around and not fall desperately in love with her, is more than this poor brain could figure.

For no reason whatever, we got on the subject of employers and their wives. Janet said she wondered why so many women were jealous of their husbands' stenographers. Or why they imagined that they had no thought in their heads but to vamp their employers.

Then Janet told me about her boss. It seems he's really an awfully fine person, and a promising architect. Janet said he is just run-to-a woman about five years older than he is, and that she devotes her life to being jealous of hubby.

Janet said the wife is always popping in out of breath, apparently hoping to find them in some compromising position. Janet says she can just feel her voice get full of malice if she called up after five, and Janet answers the phone. And she always treats her like a servant when she talks to her.

And the ridiculous part of the whole thing is that her husband is absolutely crazy about her—meaning the wife Janet admitted she couldn't understand why.

So, when Alan came home, I just hit from the shoulder—told him everything and laughed at the romantic evening "I had planned." Alan was a brick. Then he said, since I had confessed, he would too—he had worked until late, and then he had taken his stenographer out for a bite, and they had sat and talked, and he was pretty surprised when he found how late it was. He came home with apologies, feeling really quite contrite and ran into the little act described in our last issue.

The honest confessions cleared the atmosphere—and we had quite a romantic evening. Yours for truth, MARYE

Large Number of Entries in Flowers and Vegetables

Ganges, June 20.—The annual flower show of the Guild of Sunlight was held in the Mahon Hall on Saturday afternoon. There were numerous entries of flowers, decorated tables and pot plants, also a good showing in early vegetable section.

A new section was put in this year for crepe paper novelties. Mrs. G. Ringwood and Mrs. Wm. Mount were in charge of the crepe paper novelties, arranged upon the stage and did well with candles, homecoming and sewing.

During the afternoon, Jack Ringwood played classical selections and popular songs and Mrs. M. Palmer also played several numbers. Mrs. M. Purdy had a "tea" table of "pick and take," which was well patronized. Mrs. Walter Norton and Miss Jean Mount were in charge of the ice cream.

A. P. Robertson was in charge of the sports for the children. Mrs. Fred Wagg was in charge of the tea, with assistants, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Denbush, Mrs. Bittanourt, Mrs. Gavin Mount, Miss Purdy and others. The following is a list of the prize winners:

ENGLISH CHURCH UNION MEETING

London, June 20 (Canadian Press Cable).—All churchmen must deplore the critical situation which has arisen between the church and the state as a result of the rejection by the House of Commons of the new revision of the Church of England prayer book, the Earl of Shaftesbury told the annual meeting of the English Church Union at Westminster to-day.

"It may mean that in the long run disestablishment will have to come," he said. "There need be no fear of an outburst of lawlessness or license among Anglo-Catholics. We are ready to conform to authority when it is rightly and properly exercised."

MAGNESIA BEST FOR GASSY STOMACH

Bismarck Magnesia Promptly Ends Gas, Sourness and Acid Indigestion

If everything you eat turns to gas and your stomach is a constant ferment of sourness and Acid Indigestion, try taking a little pure Bismarck Magnesia after meals for a while and get the immediate relief from stomach trouble this simple prescription unfailingly gives.

It is a serious mistake to seek relief from indigestion or a bad stomach by using pepin or other artificial digestants. You get relief but weaken the stomach, and do not reach the cause which, nine times in ten, is simply "too much acid" in the stomach. Bismarck Magnesia, taken after meals, dissolves or neutralizes this acid, sweetens and cleans up the stomach, drives out gas and bloating and lets the stomach digest your food as nature intended without a particle of trouble.

Reliable druggists everywhere supply the genuine Bismarck Magnesia in both powder and tablet in sealed packages. Do not confuse with ordinary crystals, milk or lump magnesia. Be sure to get Bismarck, which is not a mixture and is especially prepared for stomach trouble. (Adv.)

NEW MINISTER FOR ST. ANDREW'S

Presbytery Unanimous in Call to Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell

The Presbytery of Victoria met in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Tuesday, June 19, at 8 p.m. to deal with the pastoral call extended by that church to the Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell, B.A., who has supplied the pulpit during the vacancy.

The usual commissioners were heard in support of the call, after which it was unanimously sustained by the vote of Presbytery. It was then placed in the hands of the pastor-elect, who expressed his appreciation of the honor conferred upon him and his decision to accept it.

Arrangements were made for the induction service, which is to take place at St. Andrew's Church on Wednesday, July 4, at 8 p.m. Rev. S. Lundie, the Moderator of Presbytery, will preside and induct and deliver the charge to the minister. Rev. T. Hadden, M.A., of Knox Presbyterian Church, will preach the sermon. Rev. J. S. Patterson, of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, will deliver the charge to the congregation.

KIWANIS SHOWS GREAT PROGRESS

Service Organization Has 1,750 Clubs and Increases Membership Rapidly

Seattle, Wash., June 20.—There are 1,750 Kiwanis clubs in the principal cities of the United States and Canada, with a membership of approximately 10,000, according to Fred C. W. Parker, executive secretary of Kiwanis International, who gave his annual report yesterday to delegates assembled here this week for the twelfth annual convention of the organization.

"Leadership in Kiwanis is naturally determined by personnel," stated Mr. Parker. "The strength of leadership has always been maintained by the strength of the members and their standing in the United States and Canada. Kiwanis has always been an active, potent force for civic and social betterment since the establishment of the first club in Detroit, in January, 1915."

"ALL KIWANIS NIGHT"

One hundred thousand Kiwanians in 1,700 cities in the United States and Canada met simultaneously Monday to observe a continent-wide fellowship of understanding. All clubs were spread from the Atlantic to the Pacific met at the identical hour that the evening session of the twelfth convention of Kiwanis International opened here in Seattle.

"Kiwanis, a cross section of the citizenship of two nations, whose ideals and aims are one, can exert an enormous strength for the betterment of humanity," stated Henry C. Heinz of Atlanta, president of the organization, in his message from Seattle to each of the 1,750 clubs last night.

"We believe that our progress in things material has been accomplished at the cost of things spiritual. This I believe is the history of the world has the business man been so fair in the dealings with his fellows. Our people have never been more generous in thought and act. I am not one of those who believe that the world is slipping back morally."

United States Senator C. C. Dill of Washington, speaking to the 5,000 delegates of the convention, urged Americans and Canadians to take more interest in public affairs. "The problems of a nation are the problems of all its people," he said. "The responsibility of citizenship means that issues must be decided upon by the people, the voters, of a nation."

ROTARIANS HOLD CABARET PARTY

President-elect Anson and Officers to Be Installed Tomorrow Evening

Herbert Anson will be installed as president of the Victoria Rotary Club to-morrow evening at a dinner at the Empress Hotel at 7 o'clock, which will be attended by wives and friends of members. Installation of the newly elected officers of the club will be performed by James H. Beatty.

The dinner will be a cabaret party, and will be featured by a surprise entertainment programme and dancing to music provided by George Ozard's orchestra.

Persons who wish to see the Midnight Sun must be in Norway at the North Cape from May 14 to August 1; at Tromsø from May 21 to July 28; or at Bodø from June 5 to July 13.

Births, Marriages, Deaths

BIRTH
SMITH—Three passed away in this city, on June 19. Alfred Smith, aged 62 years, and born in London, England. The late Mr. Smith had been a resident of Victoria for the past four years. He is survived by his widow.

The remains are resting at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel, from where the funeral will take place on Friday afternoon at 1:45, proceeding to Christ Church Cathedral, where service will be conducted by the Very Rev. Dean Quinlan at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

SCHWENKERS—They passed away on June 19, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Youdall of 51 South Turner Street, after a long illness. The late Mrs. Schwenger, widow of the late Peter J. A. Schwenger, aged 79 years, and born in Cleveland, Ohio, was a resident of Victoria for the past forty years. She is survived by her three daughters and two sons.

The funeral will take place Thursday at 2 o'clock from Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel, proceeding to the Reformed Episcopal Church, where service will be conducted by Rev. A. de B. Owen at 2:15. Interment will be made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

Dick Wilson Out, But Sister, Marion, Shows Class and Qualifies

Forest Watson, Spokane Ace, Carried to Home Green Before Gaining Decision Over Local Player in the P.N.W. Championship at Portland; Miss Wilson Has Best First Nine in Women's Qualifying Round, But Hits Trouble on Two Holes Coming Home; Gains Fourth Place; Three Other Local Women Fail

Portland, Ore., June 20.—One-sided matches in which favorites won overwhelming victories, marked the opening round here yesterday of the Pacific Northwest Amateur Golf Championship tournament on the Portland Golf Club course. Dr. O. F. Willing and Frank Dolp, of Seattle, three of the top-notchers, got by the opening round easily. Willing led the way in undisputed decision by 12 and 11 victory over E. E. Neustadter. Dolp won from Walter Fovargue, Aberdeen, by a wide margin, the result being 10 and 9. Stein, the western amateur champion, defeated J. R. Bell, Vancouver, B.C., by the same score.

While the great number of favorites came through in remarkable fashion, there were others who met with unexpected reverses. W. K. Yost of Tacoma, and Russell Smith, Portland, were among these. Yost, Washington State champion, lost to W. P. Williams, Yakima, one up. Smith, former Northwest champion, was unable to cope with C. A. English, of Portland, and English took the match 2 and 1.

The feature of the day's competition was the battle between two brothers, Don and Roy Moe, both of Portland. The score was 5 and 4 in favor of Don.

Alex. Duncan, city champion, of Seattle, eliminated L. J. Nichols, of Portland, in one of the outstanding matches, 4 and 3.

L. D. Heppinstall, who is registered from Onida, N.Y., but who holds memberships in more Pacific Northwest golf clubs than most Westerners, defeated Ben Dolp, Oregon State south-paw champion, one up after a hard battle.

PUT UP GREAT FIGHT
Dick Wilson, the only Victorian who qualified, had the satisfaction of giving Forest Watson, the Spokane ace, a great battle. Watson usually reaches the semi-finals in this contest. Six years ago, in the semi-finals of the P.N.W. at the Colwood Golf Club, Ben Stein knocked out Watson. Wilson kept pace with his more experienced opponent all the way and the match was not decided until the home green was reached, when Watson holed out for a win.

ALL B.C. MEN OUT
Every British Columbia who qualified was eliminated yesterday and the United States representatives will fight it out among themselves. Most of the survivors are from Portland. Ben Stein and Alex. Duncan are the only Seattle players left in the running, while Walls, Walls, has Williams. George Shaw is from Los Angeles; L. D. Heppinstall, from Onida, N.Y.; Don Moe, George Will, and Asa Smith, from Spokane. The Portland players are Eddie Hogan, the youthful sensation; Frank English, John Rebeck, Dr. Willing, Don Moe, George Will, Asa Smith and Rudy Wilhelm, the defending champion.

Yesterday's scores were as follows: Frank Dolp, Alderwood, defeated Walter Fovargue, Aberdeen, 10 and 9. Alex. Duncan, Seattle, defeated L. J. Nichols, Portland, 4 and 3. C. A. English, Portland, defeated Russell Smith, Waverly, 2 and 1. W. P. Williams, Walls, defeated Bill Yost, Tacoma, 1 up. George Shaw, Los Angeles, won by default from Guy Standifer. John Rebeck, Portland, defeated Hugo Hakons, Seattle, 1 up. Dr. O. F. Willing, Waverly, defeated Edwin Neustadter, Tualatin, 12 and 11. Don Moe, Alderwood, defeated Roy Moe, Alderwood, 5 and 4. L. D. Heppinstall, Onida, N.Y., defeated Ben Dolp, Alderwood, 1 up. George Will, Multnomah, defeated Monty Hill, Vancouver, B.C., at the thirty-seventh. Asa Smith, Portland, defeated A. E. Otis, Portland, 2 up. Forrest Watson, Spokane, defeated R. B. Wilson, Victoria, B.C., 1 up. Ben Stein, Seattle, defeated J. R. Bell, Vancouver, B.C., and 9. Rudy Wilhelm, Portland, defeated Vincent Dolp, Alderwood, 4 and 3.

DEN TEMPLE

When the Pacific International Yachting Association assembled at Vancouver for its annual regatta on July 1 one of the most interesting characters in the history of yachting on the Coast will again be in attendance in the person of Ben Temple, a fine and genial yachtsman, who has been official measurer for the Royal Victoria Yacht Club for thirty-four years.

Mr. Temple has missed only one regatta of any importance in Northern waters for over thirty years. He has watched the boats race at Seattle, Vancouver, Cowichan Bay, Bellingham and even at Port Townsend, way back in the early days of the present century. He did not attend a regatta in 1912, as he was in England on a visit.

Mr. Temple is known as the father of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club and is known by every yachtsman on the North Pacific. He is always a welcomed visitor on any yacht.

No regatta of the P.I.Y.A. would be complete without the presence of Mr. Temple and he will likely have an official post on the judge's boat.

Other Victorians who failed to qualify were as follows: Mrs. B. R. Philbrick, 49-48-97; Mrs. F. Wilson, 51-51-102; Mrs. A. Morkill, 54-57-111.

Some very interesting matches are expected before the women's title is decided. Mrs. Reed is the favorite here but she will have to meet some very worthy contenders before she gets through.

The luck of the draw brings Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Hutchings, twice champion in the past, together in the first round to-day. The other matches will be: Runyon-Bowen, Eva-Ristine, Swigert-Brodie, Wilson-Dornberger, Thompson-Pursey, Murphy-Whitman and Hunt-Sweeney.

Two former holders of the title were among those who were on the outside looking in, these being Mrs. Harry O. Young of Seattle, winner in 1924, and Mrs. Guy Riegel of Spokane, who copied the crown at Colwood in 1926. With them were Mrs. Fred Jackson, Seattle city titleholder, Mrs. Forbes Wilson, formerly Miss Sayward, winner of the British Columbia title in 1927, and Mrs. Philbrick of Victoria, who was one of the prominent figures in last year's tournament at Colwood.

The scores of those who qualified were as follows: Mrs. R. S. Reed, 46-40-86. Mrs. E. E. Brodie, 44-44-88. Mrs. C. S. Sweeney, 45-44-89. Mrs. M. H. Bowen, 47-46-90. Mrs. H. H. Bowen, 47-46-90. Mrs. M. Murphy, 44-47-91. Mrs. B. E. Eva, 48-44-92. Mrs. W. Pursey, 46-47-92. Mrs. E. H. Bowen, 47-46-93. Mrs. Ray Hunt, 46-47-93. Mrs. C. P. Swigert, Jr., 45-48-93. Mrs. S. S. Dornberger, 46-47-93. Mrs. E. B. Runyon, 48-46-94. Mrs. H. H. Whitman, 46-46-94. Mrs. E. P. Ristine, 46-46-95. Mrs. H. G. Thompson, 47-48-95.

CANADIAN SWIMMING GALA SET FOR SATURDAY MAY BE CANCELLED; LACK OF ENTRIES

The Victoria Amateur Swimming Club will hold an executive meeting to-night at 8.30 o'clock at the Crystal Garden to consider the cancellation of the Canadian Championship gala scheduled to take place on Saturday night.

Owing to the fact that to date the club has not received sufficient entries to give the gala a championship aspect, officials feel it would be useless to go ahead with the event.

The Vancouver contingent, which has always supported local galas, finds it impossible to attend the meet, and no entries have been received from the Seattle and Portland swimmers.

The situation will be discussed from all angles and the club's decision will be given to-morrow.

THE MAN THEY ALL FEAR

Chicago, June 20.—Bobby Jones turned in a 70 yesterday, one under perfect figures on the difficult No. 4 links of the Olympic Fields Country Club, where the U.S. open golf championship begins to-morrow. Previously a 72 made by Tommy Armour, the defending and Canadian champion, and one or two others, had been the low score.

The course should be in ideal shape to-morrow when the tournament begins.

James played several rounds earlier in the week and was far up in the leaders and the experts were wondering whether they were right that hard or whether the amateur star was off his game. It appears that Jones was just kidding the boys along for his 70 yesterday was just part of his day's work.

Jones, as usual, is looked upon as the man to beat.

OUR MAIL BAG

THE TILLCUMS SPEAK

To the Sports Editor:—According to last night's Times Leonard Tait is again on the war path. The officials of the Tillicum Athletic Club, an organization endeavoring to encourage all branches of sport, and not only boxing which is the favorite of all this unnecessary trouble, feel that owing to this movement on the part of Leonard Tait towards the Tillicum Athletic Club, not an individual, but a properly organized club, it is quite time that this question should be settled for once and all. The club is solely responsible for the organizing of boxing in Victoria, and we feel that Leonard Tait, as head of the British Columbia branch of the Amateur Union, is doing more harm than good to the encouragement of amateur sport, and under these circumstances it is our duty as an amateur organization to get these troubles settled against the club secretly and action being taken as in the past. The Tillicum Athletic Club has strictly adhered to the rules of the A.A.U. We will be pleased to meet Leonard Tait publicly, and have these so-called charges against the club laid openly so that the public can hear from both sides and not have a one-sided case laid through the press. Following is a letter received during the first trouble caused by Leonard Tait addressed to P. Richardson, secretary of the club:

"The meeting to be held by the committee appointed by the B.C.A.A.U. to investigate boxing conditions in our city will be held in the Y.M.C.A. Building, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock."

"I wish to compliment you and your club upon the efficient manner in which the bouts under your auspices have been conducted and to the general excellent refereeing."

"We feel that Mr. Tait as president of the British Columbia branch of the Amateur Union is, instead of working for the good of the amateur, which his position calls for, is out to help and assist the professional game. We do not intend to answer any further press reports, but trust that Mr. Tait will notify the local board of the A.A.U. with whom we are still affiliated, where and when he will meet us publicly and tell us whether the above letter was meant, or was it only a camouflage after his action of having a committee appointed, and further tell us in what respect the Tillicum Athletic Club has violated the A.A.U. rules any more than the lacrosse teams of which he is president."

G. H. HEINEKEY, President.

Victoria Boxing Club Promoting Fine Boxing Programme at Arena

U.S.S. Pennsylvania Pit Men Against Victoria and Mainland Boxers

Arranging at considerable expense what looks like the finest all round fight card ever offered in this city, the Victoria Boxing Club is showing considerable enterprise in its first big venture billed for the Arena to-morrow night.

Lack of financial caution in the ambitious effort to get into the fight spotlight may make "President" Frank M. Day and his directors dig into their own pockets, but while they may have to pay for their experience, the fans will reap the benefit. All monies to pay the fighters have been deposited in the bank. Ships champions and fleet champions are included in the list of fighters from the U.S.S. Pennsylvania who will try conclusions with Vancouver and Victoria boys. The full card follows:

Main event, heavyweights: ten rounds—Baptiste Thomas, Victoria vs. Paul Dussick, ex-champ U.S. Navy.
Semi-main event, featherweights: four rounds—Jackie Newman, Vancouver vs. Barney Marat, battle fleet champ U.S. Navy.
Light heavies, four rounds—Ted Beales, Victoria vs. "Silver Lining" Holloway, U.S. Navy.
Middleweights, four rounds—Bobby James, Seattle vs. Johnny Lancaster, U.S. Fleet champion.
Welterweights, four rounds—Danny Martin, Vancouver vs. Jack Caplinger, U.S. Navy.
Featherweights, four rounds—Tim Keist, Victoria vs. Johnny Gonzales, U.S. Navy.
Bantams, four rounds—Albie Davies, Victoria vs. Roderick Gonzales, U.S. Navy.
Flyweights, four rounds—Jumbo Davies, Victoria vs. Art Manning, Vancouver.

EXPECT BIG CROWD

Three or four hundred men of the U.S. warship will swell the local crowd and the advance sale of tickets points to the best turnout since the rainy fight times when the shipbuilding industry was at its height here.

Announcement that the Pennsylvania would have a megaphone artist with an international reputation to enliven the proceedings has brought to light the interesting fact that the experts in this direction are as jealous of their abilities and are as temperamental as opera singers. Nothing the U.S. ever produced can compare with Joe North's own claim, and Joe has been urged to get the largest megaphone there is in the city to show the U.S. loud-speaker what can be done.

Wild-eyed Fans Asking Who Will Win Pennants In Big League Battles

New York Yankees, Although Holding Good Lead, Cannot Be Conceded American League Championship Because Connie Mack's Athletics Are Playing Good Ball and Chasing Leaders; St. Louis Cards Show Punch and Are Favorites; Cards Defeat Cincinnati Yesterday; Brooklyn Nosed Out

Wild-eyed fans, popping the eternal question of where the next major league pennants will fly, may find the answer when the current "intersectional series" has come to a close.

The first and second intersectional series established the general superiority of the West in the National League and the East in the American, but both races still are far from the end and dried class yet.

New York Yankees have clubbed their way to a wide lead over the field in the American League, but the Athletics are not yet ready to be counted out of the race.

SONS TOO FAST FOR LUMBERMEN

Play Strong Defensive Game to Capture Lacrosse Fixture By 3-0 Score

Playing a strong defensive game the Sons of Canada defeated the C.P.S. 3-0 in Victoria and District Lacrosse League last night at the Royal Athletic Park. The Sons had an edge throughout their home players showing up well.

Early in the first quarter John Taylor put the Sons up with a fast shot. The Sons continued to press, while the lumbermen broke away on occasional attacks, but no further scoring was seen.

In the second quarter both goalies were tested a number of times, but no scoring was done. The Sons increased their lead in the third quarter when Burnett best Crossley from close quarters.

C.P.S. put up a great fight in the last period, but they were unable to break through the strong defence of the Canadians. A few minutes before the final whistle Cann scored the Sons' third and final goal.

Everett Taylor refereed. The teams were as follows:

Sons of Canada—Noel, Jack Taylor, Kennedy, Vigers, Burnett, John Taylor, Chapman, Cann, Chapman, Allan and F. Noel.
C.P.S.—J. Crossley, "Boots" McClure, Tamboline, DeCosta, W. Crossley, C. Robertson and J. Crossley.

O.C. CRICKET

London, June 20.—Surrey thoroughly humbled Essex in a county cricket match yesterday. Surrey compiled a score of 596 for five wickets and declared. Essex, who made 220 in their first innings, were all out for 137 and lost by an innings and 139 runs. Derbyshire won from Northamptonshire by an innings and 50 runs. Yorkshire won by an innings and 28 runs from Leicestershire at Leeds, the innings total being Yorkshire 291, Leicestershire 142 and 121. Lancashire got a first innings win out of their match with Nottinghamshire at Manchester. The scores were: Nottingham 302 and ten for no wickets; Lancashire 428 for nine wickets, declared. The match was abandoned owing to rain. The Minor Counties inflicted defeat on the West Indies team. Scores: Minor Counties 106 and 136; West Indies 29 and 103. The match between the English team to meet the West Indians in the first test match and The Rest was drawn. The scores: The Rest 307 for 195 for seven wickets; England 423 for six wickets, declared. Other scores were: Warwickshire 402 for eight wickets, declared; Worcestershire 213.

SOFTBALL

Cordova Bay and Hillcrest were the winners in the City League softball games played last night. The former won a fourteen-inning game from the Cameron Lumber Company 4-3, while the hillmen downed the Foresters 13-1. The game at the Central Park between Cordova Bay and Camerons was hard fought. In the fourth inning the Cordova Bay drove home two runs while the lumbermen were only able to snare one. Driving home three runs in the eighth inning the hillmen came from behind to win their game from the Foresters.

Headlocks Make Opponent Groggy And Lewis Wins

Poonis, Aris, June 20.—Ed "Strangler" Lewis, heavyweight wrestling champion, successfully defended his title here last night against the challenge of Jack Washburn of Chicago. Lewis took the match in straight falls—the first in thirty-eight minutes with a series of headlocks and one in slightly less than two minutes. When Washburn re-entered the ring he was still groggy and unable to withstand another headlock.

J.B.A.A. HAPPY OVER PROGRESS

Garsmen Will Devote Much Time to Other Sports; Ladies' Section to Help

Things are going merrily at the James Bay Athletic Association. The advent of the warm weather finds activity of all sorts in the new club quarters at the Gorge. Tennis and swimming are to be fostered as well as the club's original sport of rowing. The monthly meeting of the club was held last night and attracted a splendid turnout. The splendid work of the committees of the club has resulted in an increased enthusiasm, a larger membership and a desire to see the club quarters more fully equipped and the grounds improved.

A ladies' section has been organized, which it is expected will be a great help to the club. Miss Myrtle Russell is the convener.

IMPROVEMENTS

Tenders are to be called for additional improvements, including the removal of pillars in the main clubhouse so that a large space may be available for dancing. Cloak rooms and a lounge-erom for the ladies will also be provided. Wooden tennis courts will also be constructed as well as a new diving dock and tower. Special committees were appointed as follows:

Tennis, J. H. Thomas, R. Mawhood, Miss Myrtle Russell and Miss Dorothy Cave. Swimming, R. Mawhood, R. Nash, E. Darbyshire, N. Newman, C. Forbes, Miss May Gibson and Miss Grace Hodges. Harriers' club, W. Sheasby, R. Mercer, R. Crookford, Ken Hughes, A. Speed and J. Crane.

Boxing, W. Sheasby, D. O'Sullivan, Billy Kennedy, O. C. Wallis, Frankie Neal, R. Mawhood and C. Storch. The J.B.A.A. will stage a regatta at the Gorge on July 2 as part of the Dominion Day celebrations, and an invitation is being sent to the Vancouver Rowing Club to send over two four-oared crews, a doubles and singles.

HORSE RACING

New York, June 20.—Harry Payne Whitney's Victorian got just enough exercise to work up an appetite in winning the Sherrin Stakes, $5,000 added, "Aqueduct" feature yesterday. The three-year-old son of Whiskbroom II and Prudery, winner of the Preakness and Withers, but beaten in the Belmont and the Brooklyn Handicap, seemed to like the muddy going to-day and won a three-horse race by four lengths. David Bone, an added starter, was second and Knapsack third and last. Victorian ran the eight furlongs in 1:40 and enriched his owner by $8,600.

Lafolia's feature was the fifth race, a $1,500 claiming affair for three-year-olds and up at a mile and one-sixteenth with Harned Brothers' Dixie Prince first under the wire, Union Central was second and Flag Lieutenant third. Track conditions were adverse and form players had a tough day. Not one favorite scored all day.

Arlington Heights, Chicago, June 20.—Results of yesterday's races here were as follows:

First race—Five furlongs: 1. Haymaker (Eaton), $22.70, $11.80, $4.40; 2. Quinadin (R. Jones), $12.20, $6.10, $2.20; 3. Evrie (Philpot), $4.30. Time, 1:05.

Second race—One mile: 1. Wonderful (Kelly), $14.80, $7.40, $2.90; 2. Her Answer (Noel), $5.00, $2.50, $1.00; 3. Faraway (Dossert), $2.50. Time, 1:47 1-5.

Third race—Seven furlongs: 1. Sweet Mandy (Leyland), $4.00, $2.00, $0.80; 2. Huon Pine (Kelly), $3.50, $1.75, $0.70; 3. Sweet Money (Dossert), $2.50. Time, 1:52 3-5.

Fourth race—Five furlongs: 1. Roush Eye (R. Jones), $4.50, $2.25, $0.90; 2. Double Heart (Harvey), $4.00, $2.00, $0.80; 3. Credo (Eaton), $2.80. Time, 1:04 4-5.

Fifth race—Mile and a sixteenth: 1. Color Blind (Snyder), $24.00, $12.00, $4.50; 2. Flaherty (Allen), $2.50, $1.25, $0.50; 3. Chairman (Eaton), $2.50. Time, 1:55 1-5.

Sixth race—Seven furlongs: 1. Red Harvey (W. Cress), $47.80, $23.90, $9.00; 2. Dante (Dossert), $6.00, $3.00, $1.20; 3. Overfire (Leyland), $2.50. Time, 1:54.

Seventh race—Mile and an eighteenth: 1. Red Boy (Curran), $6.70, $3.35, $1.30; 2. Paula Gray (R. Jones), $2.50, $1.25, $0.50; 3. Twelve-sixty (Noel), $4.00. Time, 1:01 2-5.

TENNIS TALKS

WEAK SPOT IN BACKHAND STROKE

By GEORGE M. LOTT

The weak spot of players, in nine cases out of ten, is the backhand. An opponent always attempts to find a weakness on the backhand side. Therefore, with a good backhand, you are able to beat off his attack, and put him at a loss as to what method to pursue. The players who have strong backhands all say the only way to master the shot is to practice continually.

Those with a good backhand have a tremendous advantage over the other players. With a reliable backhand it is possible to start an attack of your own as well as put up a good defence. Every player likes to be able to take the net on a backhand drive.

It more than doubles the effectiveness of the whole attack as your opponent cannot depend upon your staying in the backcourt when he hits the ball to your backhand. If you are able to take the net behind a forcing backhand shot, your opponent is often taken by surprise.

Then again, if you are a backcourt player and have a strong backhand, as well as a good forehand, there is no weakness for your opponent to concentrate his attack on.

Tilden owes his great success to his ability to force his opponents with his backhand. It is very disconcerting to get Bill to the point where you think you have him cornered and then see his backhand shot drive you. In my opinion the backhand drive with the eastern grip is the greatest shot in the world because it is possible to cover a tremendous amount of court and at the same time force your opponent with the speed from your shot.

Without a reliable backhand there is a target that looms up larger as time goes on and will eventually cause the loss of many matches. If you have a weak backhand the best thing to do is to expose it to poundings as often as possible, and not try to cover it up and by getting this practice it is bound to improve if you correct the mistakes as they appear.

Tilden Wins Two More Matches In London Tourney

London, June 20.—William T. Tilden II, United States Davis Cup team captain, won two matches in the London championships tournament at the Queen's Club to-day, but in so doing dropped the first game he has lost in England this season.

In two previous matches Tilden had won in love sets, but to-day he dropped three games in eliminating O'Callaghan, captain of the Irish Davis Cup team, 6-2, 6-1 in the fourth round. Tilden then continued his progress toward the final round by downing Ronald Boyd, the Argentine player, 6-1, 6-4.

Bobby Jones On Golf

Short-Game Most Difficult to Master

Almost always it seems that the short game is the hardest part of golf for a beginner to learn. If he is reasonably strong and active he will soon become able to hit the ball well enough off the tee and through the fairway. But the delicate little strokes around the hole—the short pitches, chip shots, and putts—still will mystify him.

Not long ago, I played with a friend who has been playing golf for several years but is still in the class I have mentioned above. I remember particularly his play on the fifteenth hole. The hole measures something like five hundred yards and my friend had covered all but fifty of those yards with two fine shots. From that point he required six more to hole out giving him an eight for the hole, a seemingly impossible score, especially since he became involved in no unusual difficulties.

Usually the ninety-to-a-hundred player wastes a good many strokes within a forty-yard radius of the hole. A few in that class are really good putters, and a few are accredited good putters because they have a few good days. But for the most part the high-handicap man has little idea what it is he is trying to do when he is on the green or barely off.

STROKE SHOULD BE THE SAME EACH TIME

In playing a chip-shot or putt, the range or speed of the rolling ball is most important. The ball must be struck a true blow every time if there is to be any means of controlling its run. To top or half-top this one, to hit the turf behind the next, soon produces an uncertainty which leaves the player in a quandary as to how hard he should swing his club. If no two shots are struck the same way, he is absolutely helpless in adjusting the force of his blow.

A lot has been said and written about the part played by the wrists in executing a chip-shot or putt. Each of these strokes has been often described as being made entirely with the wrists. Following this advice, or because of a natural inclination to scoop the ball, the player swings his run-up club or his putter, from start to finish without moving his arms. The segment or arc therefore, described by his club-head is of very small radius—descending sharply and ascending sharply. There is then only one point at which he can hit the ball when the club will strike it properly, and that point is the very bottom of the arc. If the stroke is not exact—the lowest point in the path of the clubhead will be reached somewhere back of the ball and the club will either strike the ground, or rising quickly, will half top or top the shot.

CLUB-HEAD SHOULD FINISH NEAR GROUND

The cure of course, is to take the ball while the club is descending and to flatten the path of the club at the bottom. By this I mean, that playing a chip or putt, the club should finish near the ground, having traveled from impact almost horizontally instead of abruptly upward. I consider that to be the keynote of true hitting around the green. In the first place, it increases the margin for error because the club-head remains longer in the plane of the ball, and in the second place, there is less likelihood that the face of the club will be turned away from the line.

Now, as to what to do in order to "flatten the arc." As I have described the swing in which the wrists only are used, the sharp ascent of the club is caused by the stationary left forearm. That member remaining in its place, forces the hands and wrists to break abruptly upward with a most uncomfortable movement. To flatten the arc and to cause the club-head to finish low it is only necessary to allow both hands and arms to go forward with the club as the ball is struck. The motion does not need to be forced. It will take place naturally enough if the left arm be relaxed.

This does not mean that it is incorrect to say that the short chips and putts are played entirely with the wrists. There should be practically no arm motion throughout the stroke until the ball is hit. The motion of the hands and arms, which I have described above, begins almost precisely at the moment of impact. There is in the stroke no motive force supplied by the arms.

"Seeing that in these days they show so much of their legs, I don't think it would have mattered much," said Judge Greenwell, at Newcastle, when a youth declared he did not think it proper to go into the women's department at a shoe shop, as he was afraid of seeing a woman with her shoes off.

WALKER HOPES TO WIN BY K.O.

Six Rounds Will Be Enough He Says; Hudkins Confident He Will Win Title

Chicago, June 20.—"I will stop Hudkins within six rounds," "I am confident of defeating Walker and winning the middle-weight title."

That is the way Mickey Walker, world's middleweight champion and Ace Hudkins, Nebraska Wildcat, challenger, size up each other as they tapered off training to-day for their title contest at Comiskey Park to-morrow night. Walker has been guaranteed $75,000 with a privilege of 42½ per cent of the net receipts. Hudkins has been guaranteed $25,000 with a privilege of 22½ per cent.

BANDMASTER RETIRES

Kingston, June 20.—Announcement that Major Alfred Light, director of music of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery and senior bandmaster of the military forces of Canada, will retire from the service. Major Light entered the British army nearly fifty years ago as a trumpeter.

I. B. SUTTON OF MEXICO IS NEW ROTARY HEAD

Minneapolis, June 20.—I. B. Sutton of Tampico, Mexico, former third vice-president, was elected president of Rotary International here to-day as the organization at its annual convention discarded its usual machinery for balloting and named him by acclamation.

PRIORY PARK IS ASCOT WINNER

Ascot, Eng., June 20.—Priory Park, owned by J. B. Joel, to-day won the Royal Mint Cup, the third famous fixture in Royal Ascot Week.

St. Jerome, owned by Viscount Lascelles, husband of Princess Mary, was second, and Sir Delvins Broughton's Knight of the Grail, third. Twenty-five horses ran.

Priory Park is by Rock Savage out of Chatham II. Priory Park won by three lengths, and there was half a length between second and third. The betting was 15 to 2; 33-1 and 25-1 and the stakes were the cup and £1,200 with extras. The distance was seven furlongs and 166 yards.

HIGHER PAY FOR LOCOMOTIVE MEN

Chicago, June 20.—An increase of 6½ per cent in their daily wage scale was awarded to-day to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers by the conference of managers of the Western Railway of the United States, affecting approximately 22,500 employees and totaling $4,500,000 a year.

GROWTH OF FOREST INDUSTRIES

Canada has made rapid progress in the development of her forest industries and has lately taken first place in the matter of world's newspaper production. The wise conservation of the forest resources of the Dominion, particularly the reduction of losses through preventable forest fires, and the encouragement of systematic reforestation and tree-planting schemes, have been increasingly urged upon the attention of the general public.

Britton Budd, the railroad magnate of Chicago, told a railroad story at a Blackstone banquet.

"Once upon a time," he said, "there was a railroad about seven miles long that was notorious for its bumps and dirt and dilatoriness."

"A train on this railroad pulled in at the terminus one morning, late as usual, and a man said as he brushed the cinders off his clothes:

"Well, thank goodness, the worst part of my journey is over."

"Goin' fa?" said the conductor.

"Cochin, China," said the man."

PICCADILLY

PICCADILLY'S popularity is based, not on any fad, but on the solid preference of men who have selected it as their tobacco after trying many other brands.

In patent hermetic tins at twenty-five cents.

"Keep in mind you're Riding on Air!"

Plenty of rubber, and the right kind of rubber in the right place—in Dominion Royal Cord Balloons. For example all the cotton cord used is soaked with pure rubber latex. You cannot see all the rubber in a Dominion Royal Cord Balloon, but it is there, adding to the mileage of the tires.

AIR is about the only thing you can get free these days. And yet half the men who drive cars seem afraid to use it.

Air lifts the load off the road. The heavier the load the more air it takes. That's why tire makers have worked out the correct inflation pressure for every size of tire for different loads.

You wouldn't think of running on a flat, yet how often do you let the pressure run so low that every severe bump pinches the tire between the road and the rim. An under-inflated tire is subjected to continuous and excessive flexing of the tire walls. And then you wonder why you don't get greater tire mileage.

Know the correct pressure for your tires, and stick to it. Don't guess it—gauge it. Two or three pounds under pressure cuts miles off the life of a tire.

Keep in mind you're riding on air, and if there isn't sufficient air, you're riding straight into trouble.

Pay a weekly visit to a tire service station and have the inflation checked and the tires examined for minor injuries. It's the only way to get the maximum mileage from tires.

BAYVIEW ALONE UP IN WEAKER MARKET

Vancouver, June 20 (By R. F. Castle Leased Wire).—The downward trend continued on most of the B.C. stocks, and the bottom does not seem to have been reached.

One bright spot was Bayview, which sold strong and gained nearly a point, a 5% over 20,000 shares being bought. Big Missouri did not receive much support, only one sale registering at 47, five points off.

Cork Province drew a blank. Duthie on news that a dividend of 2½ cents would be paid, gained two points to close at 1.14.

Golconda held steady and was quite active, gaining a point at the opening. It finished at 73½, yesterday's close.

Grandview showed a lot of activity, but its trend was downward, hitting the low for the year by closing at 33½.

Kootenay Florence closed at 27, 8,000 going through and L. & L. held the same.

Pend Oreille was weak, selling down to 12-25. Porter-Idaho showed a little more life, over 5,000 selling around 28.

Whitewater also slipped down seven points to 230. Woodbine held its own, 8,000 going through at 30½, 1½ up.

Topley-Richfield held at 52.

Rufus-Argenta fell off a point to 19, on the news that the men going North to look over the property were carrying out an examination of it, as the reported deal for the sale of the property now turns out to be only an option, subject to examination. George slump-

NORANDA MOVES UP; PEND GOES LOWER

Toronto, June 20 (By R. F. Castle Leased Wire).—The smallest day's trading so far this year was transacted on the Standard Exchange to-day.

Noranda moved up sharply during the first hour to 36.50, easing off to 35.50 and rallying to close at 35.75 and 35.80.

Amulet at 3.20 to 3.85 was down 5.

Hudson Bay at 16.65 to 16.70 was off 25.

Lake Shore at 23.00 and 23.30 was off 25.

Miner Corporation at 320 to 325 was down 10.

Pend Oreille at 1225 and 1240 was 60 cents weaker.

Under strong buying, San Antonio sold up to 40 but eased off to close at 37 3/4.

Wright Hargreaves at 415 and 420 was down 10, while Sudbury Basin at 9.85 to 9.90 was up 5.

International Nickel, which has withstood considerable bear pressure during the recent decline that Wall Street has experienced, moved up 1½ points, closing strong at 92½, to 93.

Lambert Co. has been meeting with good buying on all reactions, its net earnings for 1928 are expected to approximate $10 per share, and the long pull outlook is very promising. It is likely that the dividend will again be increased this year.

Kroger Grocery and Baking.—Although this issue is not proof against general market influence it comes back very quickly whenever pressure is removed; with the recent acquisition of the 154 stores of the Feltz organization, the company now operates 4,165 stores throughout the Middle West. It is expanding rapidly, but soundly, and the market trend of the stock should continue generally upward over the long pull. We would accumulate K. G. on reactions.

Otis Steel.—Whereas other steel manufacturers are showing a declining tendency in their earnings, Otis continues to report increases. Investors are very optimistic on the company's future, and there is some talk of dividend resumption on the issue.

Montgomery Ward has just opened six new branches in California and plans to establish a few more before the Fall; although the company is making rapid progress in extending the retail end of its business, one must not expect the real benefits of this programme to be fully reflected in earnings for 1928.

Sound Reasoning

The same reasons which lead men to employ architects, lawyers and physicians when in need of special services, which they alone can give, should impel them to turn to a time-tested corporate executor to administer their estates.

NOTICE TO MINING INVESTORS

It has come to the attention of the administrators of the Engineering Act, viz. the Council of the Association of Professional Engineers of the Province of British Columbia, that persons apparently unqualified are holding themselves out as mining engineers, and are making engineering reports on mining properties. It should be noted that in this Province only those who are registered or licensed under the terms of the Engineering Act are authorized to make engineering reports in connection with mines.

Lists of engineers so authorized to practice have appeared in The British Columbia Gazette, or can be obtained from the Administration Office, 930 Birs Building, Vancouver.

Checking Up

Actions speak louder than words in mining, as elsewhere. Consider this list of Miller, Court & Co. Ltd., recommendations.

WHITEWATER—Mill running 24 hours a day.

LUCKY JIM—Crushing 225 tons ore daily.

RUTH-HOPE—Mill running at capacity.

CORK PROVINCE—Converted mill and 800,000 hydro-electric plant near completion.

NOBLE FIVE—Large crew preparing mill for early commencement of production.

TOPLEY-RICHFIELD—Extensive development programme proving up very rich property.

PEND OREILLE—5,000 feet diamond drilling per month assures spectacular future.

BLUEBIRD—Management rushing development and will ship rich ore this season. Production is the only thing that counts in any line of industry. All the above properties are steadily approaching the dividend stage. The entire list has our strongest endorsement, and prices of six months hence will justify our recommendations.

NEW ISLAND MINE TO PRODUCE 300 TONS COAL A DAY

The Consumers Coal Mines Limited will start mining operations at once on its 2,600 acres on the east coast of the Island, about seven miles south of Nanaimo, it was announced to-day by D. A. Cramer of Vancouver.

The coal is in the Douglas seam and comes up to the surface on a small round island and then dips below tidewater, and is the same as that of the Western Fuel at Nanaimo.

"As there is no haulage, because the coal is right at the surface, and a few feet from deep water, we can undersell any other coal now in this market," Mr. Cramer said. "We will go on a production of 300 to 400 tons a day. We have an estimated tonnage so far of 55,564,000."

"The late George Wilkinson, M.E., in his report to us said that, in his opinion, this is the finest unexploited coal area on the Pacific Coast, and the opening up of the property should prove one of the largest and cheapest operated coal mines on the whole coast."

Officers of the company are: John Arbutnot, president; Andrew Wright, vice-president; R. H. Powell, D. O. Cameron, G. S. Gamble and J. D. Mather, directors.

N.Y. Market Gossip

New York, June 20 (By B.C. Bond).—Most students of the technical condition of the market agree that the important testing point will be reached during the current week. During the rally which started last week, average prices retraced about forty per cent. of the ground lost on the initial part of the decline. The market, along with the averages, has taken a step back to the previous lows. The thought is that if professional attempts to establish new lows on the move do not meet this success during the early part of this week, it may demonstrate that the liquidation has been completed and that the forward movement will resume.

However, if we study the 1926 reaction we find after the secondary reaction failed to establish new lows the market rallied for four consecutive days and then went down for two weeks.

Thus it would be in keeping with precedent if a rally were to be generated in the closing days of this week carrying the averages up three or four points.

The main question for traders to bear in mind is not whether the market will rally, but whether a down trend has been definitely established. We believe it has. It is true that some readjustment in stock prices has taken place, but certainly the correction has not been sufficient to restore sound conditions.

Brokers' loans are still excessive. The Federal Reserve authorities thought they were high seven months ago, when they were about a billion dollars lower than they now are. Therefore, instead of looking for a reduction of $600,000,000 in brokers' loans we should anticipate one of around a billion dollars. That cannot be accomplished without further liquidation of stocks which, of course, will mean lower prices.

We believe the general run of security prices are too high, considering prevailing conditions, and we feel the best procedure is to take advantage of rallies to sell. Of course, there are some individual exceptions, but as to those issues it is hard to wait until the market correction has been more readily completed, as even the soundest investment stocks may be sympathetically affected by selling in other parts of the list.

Radio has made a new low on the move and acts as though the floating supply of the stock were more than equal to the demand. It is an active trading medium and may have sharp rallies, but for the time being its price trend seems to be downward.

Wright Aeronautical is another issue which has made a new low on the move. The right to subscribe to the new stock expires on Friday, June 22, and after that time there will be less reason for insiders to support W. A. C.

New York, June 20 (By B.C. Bond).—International Telephone in the first quarter of 1928 earned a net of $2.62 per share on the 1,302,054 shares now outstanding, as compared with $3.85 per share on 928,822 shares, reported for the 1927 period. The company declared the regular quarterly dividend

UNUSUAL BIRDS

Thousands of men spend their lives studying birds. They are called ornithologists, and it is to their serious efforts that we owe our knowledge of our friends of the air. Some birds are uncouth to look upon, but most feathered creatures are beautiful. Above is pictured a Sun Bittern, with magnificent wing and tail feathers.

Ostriches are raised for their wonderful plumes. The Ostrich trying to hide, pokes his head into the sand and imagines he is concealed.

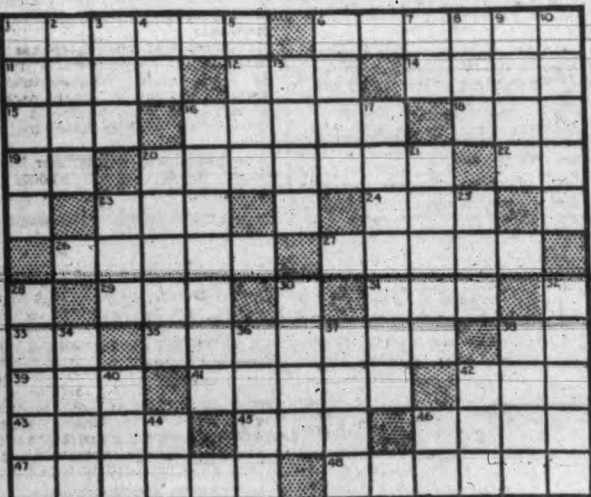

The pride of the Peacock has become a family proverb. Here is sketched a fine specimen of the species.

To all who have taken voyages across the ocean, the sight of Gulls is familiar. Many types of airplanes are patterned after the Sea Gull and other wide-winged birds. The Gulls pictured above, in full flight, are following some ship, on the lookout for whatever in the way of edibles is thrown overboard.

To-morrow's Horoscope

THURSDAY, JUNE 21, 1928

Benefic aspects dominate in to-day's horoscope, according to astrology, which reads much that is favorable to human aspirations.

Time is turning backward in fashion, it is pointed out, and women will partake of the feminine modes to an extent that intrigues them into opaqueness.

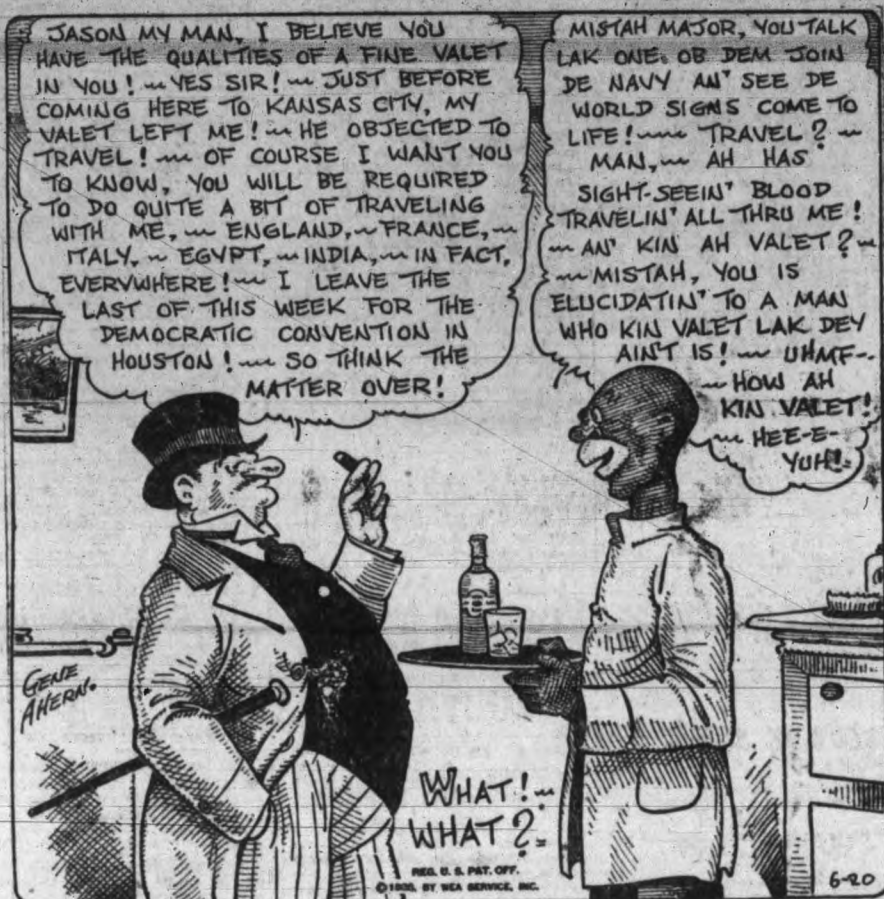

Farmer are to have many benefits by harvest-time and they are to exercise unusual power in the national political campaign, it is prognosticated. Banks and bankers are again to enjoy the aid of the stars even though their interests may clash with those of certain workers, it is forecast.

Newspapers certainly are to gain the utmost consideration and respect from the people in the next few months, if there is anything in astrology. Great feats of reportorial sagacity are foreshadowed and many editors will gain honors.

The evening of this day is read as rather unfavorable to meetings with persons of opposite sex. The summer is to be a time of much interest in sentimental friendships, on the part of persons of advancing age, it is prognosticated. Many marriages of men and women in the autumn time of life are presaged and there will be many foolish ventures into love entanglements, astrologers warn.

Persons whose birthdate it is may gain favor with friends and enjoy unexpected advantages in the coming year. Children born on this day probably will be exceedingly honest and dependable. They are often strong individualists.

FINE RABBITS SEEN AT SHOW

Victoria Association Displays High Grade Exhibits

Over eighty rabbits, bred for the Victoria Rabbit Breeders' show, held in the Y.M.C.A. last night. The purpose of the exhibition was to interest the public in the industry as well as to insure the breeding of high-grade rabbits. Last night it was easily seen that the breeders had spent much care in rearing their rabbits and many fine animals were admired by the seventy-five people who attended the show.

THREE SPECIALS
Three special prizes were awarded for rabbits of unusual quality. The first was a prize donated by C. Bove for the best rabbit exhibited by a lady. This was won by Mrs. I. Schwatze's White Angora Woeber. The best combined rabbit prize, donated by H. M. Digson, was given to a White Flemish doe entered by the Woodbine Rabbity. The Chinchilla owned by Mrs. A. Darcus captured the award given for the best rabbit in the show. This cup was presented by the Rabbit Breeders' Association.

The judges for the evening were Mrs. J. French and C. Wooley, the president of the organization. A committee composed of Mrs. J. French, Mrs. P. Boucher, E. Greenwood, C. Delure and L. Bird looked after the show and were responsible for its success.

AT THE THEATRES

JACK MULHALL IS SUCCESS IN ROLE OF LIGHT COMEDIAN

That Jack Mulhall is rapidly becoming one of the most popular light comedians on the screen is the assertion of exhibitors all over the country.

Formerly seen only in dramatic roles, Mulhall has been featured in lighter parts by First National in his recent pictures with great success.

LILLIAN GISH HAS DRAMATIC VEHICLE

One of the greatest successes of the modern stage is the new vehicle for Lillian Gish in "The Enemy," Metro-Gwynn-Mayer's sumptuous filmization of Channing Pollock's famous New York drama, and which will be shown at the Coliseum Theatre next week.

The play scored a sensational triumph at the Times Square Theatre in New York with Fay Bainter as the star. Miss Gish plays the tragic Austrian heroine, Paula, in the toils of warfare.

The story deals with the psychological havoc of war rather than its physical damage. It shows an Austrian family in a series of hatreds and was scenarized from the original play with elaborate replicas of Austrian cities constructed at the studios.

KIWANIS AID TO YOUTH GROWS

Vocational Guidance Committee Reports to International Convention

Seattle, June 20.—To help secure greater happiness for the human race, the members of the Kiwanis Clubs have engaged themselves in an extensive campaign to eliminate the chance choice of employment for youths about to leave educational institutions.

"There is too much trial and error coming from the unsystematic process of selecting life work," Joseph V. Hanna of New York, chairman of the vocational guidance committee, told Kiwanians to-day attending the twelfth annual convention of Kiwanis International here.

In British Columbia hundreds of youths are receiving vocational counsel. Kiwanis Clubs in Nanaimo, Vancouver and New Westminster have done excellent work, according to Mr. Hanna. In Washington and Oregon the Kiwanis Clubs are engaged in extensive activities.

SYMPATHETIC COURSE

Kiwanians recognize as vocational guidance the sympathetic, scientific and personal methods of adjusting youths into their right social, industrial and commercial environments. Before students leave the schools they are fully informed by Kiwanians of the various vocations. Each youth has the opportunity of becoming familiar, through actual observation, with as many different kinds of businesses and professions as he desires to investigate.

"Providing actual vocational advice is a necessity," said Mr. Hanna, "placement of a young man or woman often requires several successive jobs, and complete service is necessary. In each one of the 1,750 clubs there is a committee on vocational guidance ready to help every young person seeking vocational counsel."

Vocational guidance, suggested Mr. Hanna, demands a broad and sympathetic understanding of youths, their years of development until employment problems are solved, and then not always with satisfaction. Expert opinions and knowledge concerning a youth's intellectual, emotional, temperamental and character qualities should be sought from many sources, but all such information is to be applied through close and continuous personal contact and friendship.

Among the strange specimens discovered in Brazil are flat fish with a poison spike in their tails, and vultures which make noises like barking dogs.

Most chewing gum is made from chicle, a gum obtained from the sapodilla tree.

ORIENTAL REALISM MARKS SETTINGS OF "CHINESE BUNGALOW"

"The Chinese Bungalow," Matheson Lang's greatest success on the legitimate stage, appears in screen form this week at the Coliseum Theatre.

Chinese architecture, decorations and other details create an exact duplicate of the mysterious Orient, and proved one of the strangest tasks of research ever encountered in an English studio.

The stage presentations this week are exceptionally good including Florence Shirley, lyric soprano; the Benet Sisters in a vocal duet of popular numbers and bits from "San Toy" and Eric Bryce, in a monologue written from the story of "The Chinese Bungalow."

Low Turner's Coliseum orchestra provides special musical selections and a setting of Chinese compositions for the picture.

TENSE LOVE TALE ON DOMINION SHEET GRIPS AUDIENCE

"Across to Singapore," Ben Ames Williams' vivid drama of the sea, with Ramon Novarro as the star, is the attraction now at the Dominion Theatre.

This much-heralded Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer drama is a vivid story of romance and adventure, laid on the high seas in New England, and in the mysterious Oriental melting-pot of Singapore.

The new play is a graphic romance of the clipper ships, with Novarro as a young sailor, enmeshed in a strange love affair which leads to dramatic adventure.

The stage attraction at the Dominion Theatre this week offers G. Donald Gray and Sidney Dixon, the noted KOMO radio artists, who are appearing twice daily in their farewell engagement. Their programme includes mostly popular request numbers that have been received by admiring fans. These two popular stars are established favorites with Victoria picture-goers and music-lovers, and it is expected that many Victorians will avail themselves of this last opportunity to see and hear these artists in person.

EXPERT DIRECTOR WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR PLAYHOUSE PICTURE

Ben Silvey, assistant director on "No Place to Go," a First National Picture, was formerly assistant director with the Coliseum Theatre unit. He is known as the most systematic man in film-making, his notes on a production being more voluminous than the scenario itself. He has the record of having brought every picture to which he was attached "through on scheduled time." He is also known as the biggest assistant-director in Hollywood, standing 6 feet 3 inches in his stocking feet.

"No Place to Go" is now playing at the Playhouse Theatre, with Lloyd Hughes and Mary Astor in the featured roles. Allan Cooke, last seen with Colleen Moore in "Naughty But Nice," Virginia Lee Corbin, Myrtle Sedman, and Jed Prouty are also in the cast.

FOLLIES BEAUTIES ARE SENSATION AT CAPITOL THEATRE

"The Ingenues," that sensational feminine band of beauties, all glorified by Florenz Ziegfeld, in his production of the 1927 Follies now at the Capitol Theatre, are an organization of unusual combination of feminine entertainment and the variety of instruments and novelties used by them are as varied as anything ever presented by Paul Whiteman and his band or any other famous musical aggregation. Their ability and musicianship on a variety of instruments make it possible for them to present a series of musical features never attempted before by any other orchestra. Twenty beauties, each a talented dancer, and singer in addition to which, able to play from three to five instruments equally well, describes "The Ingenues," fine musical accomplishments.

Nancy Carroll, leading lady in Richard Dix's new comedy farce, "Easy Come, Easy Go," which is showing at the Capitol Theatre this week, is much in demand around Los Angeles at present as a lecturer. She has received several invitations from women's clubs during the past two weeks.

Miss Carroll recently addressed the combined clubs in Alhambra, Cal., and, since that time, she has been forced to decline several opportunities to talk on motion pictures. She is trying to fill as many requests as her time allows.
